

111TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 1578

Supporting the goals and ideals of Jubilee Day.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 29, 2010

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida (for himself, Mr. COOPER, Mr. LEWIS of Georgia, Mr. DAVIS of Illinois, Ms. KILPATRICK of Michigan, Mrs. BLACKBURN, Mr. CLAY, and Ms. MOORE of Wisconsin) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

RESOLUTION

Supporting the goals and ideals of Jubilee Day.

Whereas six months after the end of the Civil War, the Fisk School was established in Nashville, Tennessee;

Whereas the Fisk School was designed by its founders to be an educational institution open to all, regardless of race or age;

Whereas the Fisk School was incorporated as Fisk University in 1867;

Whereas funding for the opening of the school was secured through the sale of slave paraphernalia;

Whereas in 1871, a group of students at Fisk University formed a choral group, the Fisk Jubilee Singers, with the goal of raising money to finance the institution;

Whereas in that same year, the Fisk Jubilee Singers took all the funds in the University treasury with them for travel expenses and set off on a tour of the United States and Europe;

Whereas during their first tour, the Jubilee Singers raised enough money to preserve their university and pay for the construction of Jubilee Hall, the South's first permanent structure built for the education of African-American students;

Whereas the Jubilee Singers introduced the world to the spiritual as a musical genre, emerging as the first internationally recognized group of African-American musicians;

Whereas the Fisk Jubilee Singers continue to tour and perform and have received countless awards and honors;

Whereas, on every October 6, Fisk University celebrates the original group of nine students and their music professor, George L. White, who toured internationally in hopes of raising money to save Fisk University from closing; and

Whereas, on October 6, 2010, the Fisk University community will celebrate its 139th Jubilee Day: Now, therefore, be it
