RESOLUTION

Condemning the release of convicted terrorist Abdel Basset Mohamed al-Megrahi from a prison in Scotland to return home to Libya.

Whereas, on December 21, 1988, Pan Am Flight 103, from London to New York, was destroyed by a bomb, killing all 259 people on board, 11 civilians on the ground, for a total of 270 people which included 189 people from the United States;

Whereas, on January 31, 2001, Abdel Basset Mohamed al-Megrahi was sentenced to life in prison for his participation in the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103;

Whereas, on August 20, 2009, the Scottish Government released him on “compassionate grounds” to return to Libya due to terminal prostate cancer;

Whereas, on August 20, 2009, the White House expressed deep regret for the decision to release Abdel Basset Mohamed al-Megrahi and has stated that he should serve out his sentence in Scotland;

Whereas, on August 20, 2009, the United States Secretary of State, Hilary Rodham Clinton, expressed the United States deep disappointment by the decision of the Scottish Government to release Abdel Basset Mohamed al-Megrahi and deepest sympathies to the families of the victims; and

Whereas, on August 21, 2009, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Mr. Robert Mueller III, expressed his outrage of the release of Abdel Basset Mohamed al-Megrahi to the Scottish Justice Secretary, Kenny MacAskill, stating “Your action in releasing Megrahi is as inexplicable as it is detrimental to the cause of justice. Indeed your action makes a mockery of the rule of law. Your action gives comfort to terrorists around the world who now believe that regardless of the quality of the investigation, the conviction by jury after the defendant is given all due process, and sentence appropriate to the crime, the terrorist will be freed by one man’s exercise of ‘compassion.’ Your action rewards a terrorist even though he never admitted to his role in this act of mass murder and even though neither he nor the government of Libya ever disclosed the names and roles of others who were responsible.”: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

5 United States citizens;

6 (2) extends deepest sympathies to all the family

9 tive message to terrorists and undermines the judi-
10 cial system in terrorist convictions;

11 (4) expresses concern for the celebration of
12 Abdel Basset Mohamed al-Megrahi's return to Libya
13 because this sends the wrong message to terrorists;
14 and
