

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1051

To establish the Centennial Historic District in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 14, 2009

Mr. CASEY introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources

A BILL

To establish the Centennial Historic District in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Centennial District Au-
5 thorization Act of 2009”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; PURPOSES.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

8 (1) the Centennial District in the Common-
9 wealth of Pennsylvania was the site of an inter-

1 national exhibition to celebrate the Centennial of the
2 United States in 1876;

3 (2) held only 11 years after the end of the Civil
4 War, the Centennial Exhibition was both a national
5 celebration of unity and a recognition by the world
6 community that the United States was emerging as 7 the leading country in the world;

8 (3) the Centennial Exhibition displayed 60,000
9 exhibits from more than 28 countries around the 10 world in 240 buildings and hosted nearly 10,000,000
11 visitors, which is estimated to be nearly 25 percent
12 of the population of the United States at the time
13 of the Exhibition;

14 (4) the Centennial Exhibition became the center
15 of cultural, technological, economic, and geopolitical
16 development in the United States by demonstrating
17 groundbreaking innovations, including root beer, the 18 telephone, kindergarten, the typewriter, the phono-
19 graph, and the monorail;

20 (5) there are more than 100 United States
21 companies that displayed at the Centennial Exhi-
22 bition that are still in business today, including
23 Bausch and Lomb, John Deere, Campbell's, Heinz,
24 and Wyeth;

1 (6) the Centennial District is located in Fair-
2 mount Park, which is listed on the National Register
3 of Historic Places;

4 (7) Memorial Hall, a centerpiece of the Centen-
5 nial celebration is—

6 (A) listed on the National Register of His-
7 toric Places; and

8 (B) being renovated to join other cultural
9 institutions as an anchor for the Centennial
10 District; and

11 (8) the Centennial District would commemorate
12 the historic significance of the Centennial celebration
13 in the history of the United States.

14 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

15 (1) to preserve and interpret for the educational
16 and inspirational benefit of the public the contribu-
17 tion to the heritage of the United States of certain
18 historic and cultural land in the Centennial Historic
19 District, with an emphasis on harnessing the unique
20 urban environment of the District for the edu-
21 cational and recreational values offered by the Dis-
22 trict; and

23 (2) to enhance economic and cultural redevelop-
24 ment in the District by preserving the history of the 25 United States Centennial Celebration.

1 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.
