

111TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. 3899

To provide enhanced Federal enforcement and assistance in preventing and prosecuting crimes of violence against children.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 29, 2010

Mrs. BOXER introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To provide enhanced Federal enforcement and assistance in preventing and prosecuting crimes of violence against children.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Violence Against Chil-
5 dren Act of 2010”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) According to a report by the Federal Inter-
9 agency Forum on Child and Family Statistics, in

1 2007, more than 248,000 violent crimes were com-
2 mitted against children between ages 12 and 17.

3 (2) According to data from the National Inci-
4 dent-Based Reporting System, people under the age
5 of 18 make up approximately 26 percent of violent 6 crime victims reported to police, including 70 per-
7 cent of all reported sexual assaults. Of the victims 8 under the age of 18, approximately 37 percent were 9 under the age of 12.

10 (3) According to data from the Bureau of Jus-
11 tice Statistics, people between the ages of 12 and 19
12 are victims of violent crime twice as often as people
13 over the age of 20.

14 (4) According to data from the Bureau of Jus-
15 tice Statistics, only 35 percent of violent crimes
16 against people between ages 12 and 19 are actually 17 reported to police.

18 (5) According to data from the Department of 19 Health and Human Services, it is estimated that 20 more than 85,000 children were victims of physical 21 abuse in 2006, of which approximately 465 were fa-
22 talities.

23 (6) Child abuse has long-lasting negative effects
24 upon children and families, including delayed devel-
25 opment, depression, substance abuse, and increased

1 likelihood of experiencing or perpetrating domestic 2 violence as an adult.

3 (7) Local law enforcement agencies are in need
4 of additional resources to protect and serve the 5 needs of children and families.

6 (8) Legal representation, including training re-
7 quirements for attorneys, guardians ad litem (GAL),
8 and court appointed special advocates (CASA), and 9 caseload restrictions, for children in dependency
10 court varies substantially by State and jurisdiction.

11 (9) With an estimated 30,000 gangs operating 12 within the United States, gang violence and drug 13 trafficking remain serious problems throughout the 14 country, causing injury and death to innocent vic-
15 tims, often children.

16 (10)(A) For example, on November 13, 2005, a
17 gang-related dispute broke out in San Bernardino,
18 California, and gunfire sprayed an apartment build-
19 ing, killing 11-year-old Mynisha Crenshaw and seri-
20 ously wounding her 14-year-old sister as they ate
21 Sunday dinner with their family.

22 (B) This tragic shooting symbolizes the struggle
23 that so many communities across the United States,
24 like San Bernardino, face in combating gang vio-
25 lence, and serves as a reminder of the nationwide

1 problem of protecting children from senseless vio-
2 lence.

3 (11) Coordination of Federal resources is need-
4 ed to reduce gang violence through proven and 5 proactive prevention and intervention programs, in-
6 cluding programs that focus on keeping at-risk
7 youth in school and out of the criminal justice sys-
8 tem.

9 (12) According to a 2006 report by the Wash-
10 ington State Attorney General and the Department
11 of Justice (Office of Juvenile Justice and Delin-12 quency Prevention), in 76 percent of murders of an 13 abducted child, the murder is committed within 3
14 hours of the abduction.

15 (13) The same report found that in 89 percent
16 of missing child murders, the child died within 24
17 hours of disappearing.

18 (14) For example, on March 27, 2009, 8-year-
19 old Sandra Cantu of Tracy, California, was reported
20 missing by her mother. Following more than a week 21 of search and investigation, she was found dead, the 22 victim of kidnapping and murder.

23 (15) Federal, State, and local law enforcement
24 must have more tools to act quickly in investigating

1 reports of crimes against children, particularly child
2 abductions.
