

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. CON. RES. 37

Supporting the goals and ideals of senior caregiving and affordability.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 28, 2009

Mr. JOHANNES (for himself and Mr. CASEY) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Supporting the goals and ideals of senior caregiving and affordability.

Whereas 8,000 people in the United States turn 60 years old every day;

Whereas an estimated 35,900,000 people, 12.4 percent of the population, are 65 years of age and older;

Whereas the United States population age 65 and older is expected to more than double in the next 50 years to 86,700,000 in 2050;

Whereas the 85 and older population is projected to reach 9,600,000 in 2030, and double again to 20,900,000 in 2050;

Whereas it is estimated that 4,500,000 people in the United States have Alzheimer's disease today;

Whereas it is estimated that number will increase to between 11,300,000 and 16,000,000 by 2050;

Whereas 70 percent of people with Alzheimer's disease and other dementias live at home, and these individuals are examples of individuals who need assistance in the home with activities of daily living;

Whereas more than 25 percent of all seniors need some level of assistance with activities of daily living;

Whereas so as to address the surging population of seniors who have significant needs for in-home care, the field of senior caregiving will continue to grow;

Whereas there are an estimated 44,000,000 adults in the United States providing care to adult relatives or friends and an estimated 725,000 nonfamily private paid senior caregivers;

Whereas both unpaid family caregivers and paid caregivers work together to serve the daily living needs of seniors who live in their own homes;

Whereas the Department of Labor estimated that paid caregivers for the year 2006 worked a total of 835,000,000 hours, and the projected hours of paid senior caregivers are estimated to increase to 4,350,000,000 hours by 2025; and

Whereas the longer a senior is able to provide for his or her own care, the less burden is placed on public payment systems in Federal and State governments: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) recognizes caregiving as a profession;

1 (2) supports the private home care industry and
2 the efforts of family caregivers throughout the
3 United States by encouraging individuals to provide
4 care to family, friends, and neighbors;

5 (3) encourages alternatives to make caregiving
6 for seniors even more accessible and affordable
7 through reviews of Federal policies that relate to
8 caregiving for seniors;

9 (4) supports current Federal programs that ad-
10 dress the accessibility and affordability needs of sen-
11 iors and their family caregivers; and

12 (5) encourages the Secretary of Health and
13 Human Services to continue working to educate peo-
14 ple in the United States on the impact of aging and 15 the importance of knowing the options available to 16 seniors when they need care to meet their personal
17 needs.
