A BILL

To express the sense of the Congress that the United States should not adopt any treaty that poses a threat to national sovereignty or abridges any rights guaranteed by the United States Constitution, such as the right to keep and bear arms, and to withhold funding from the United Nations unless the President certifies that the United Nations has not taken action to restrict, attempt to restrict, or otherwise adversely infringe upon the rights of individuals in the United States to keep and

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "Second Amendment
- 5 Protection Act of 2011".
- 6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.
- 7 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—
- 8 (1) it is the constitutional power of Congress to
- 9 determine United States foreign policy through the
- 10 ratification of international treaties and adoption of
- 11 laws;
- 12 (2) by prematurely signing treaties and execu-
- tive agreements, Presidents of the United States
- have opened the door for international organizations
- to unilaterally regulate the lives of citizens of the
- 16 United States;
- 17 (3) these international agreements, laws, and
- regulations are being applied domestically in the
- 19 United States through the Supremacy Clause, which
- states, "This Constitution, and the Laws of the
- 21 United States which shall be made in Pursuance
- thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be
- 23 made, under the Authority of the United States,
- shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the

- Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding";
 - (4) the Supremacy Clause is useful to supersede conflicting Federal and State laws;
 - (5) international and transnational organizations force their rules on people of the United States through conventions, multilateral agreements, and nonratified treaties, such as agreements that affect the private ownership of firearms by law-abiding citizens; and
 - (6) United States sovereignty is risked by domestic legal applicability of international treaties and executive agreements that have not been voted on and congressionally adopted through formal processes which pose a threat to national sovereignty and the liberty of the people of the United States, including fundamental rights guaranteed under the United States Constitution, such as the right to keep and bear arms.
- 21 (b) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—That it is the sense 22 of the Congress that the United States should not adopt 23 any treaty that poses a threat to national sovereignty or 24 abridges the rights guaranteed by the United States Con-25 stitution, such as the right to keep and bear arms, and

- 3 SEC. 3. CONDITIONAL PROHIBITION ON UNITED NATIONS
- 4 FUNDING.
- 5 (a) In General.—Notwithstanding any other provi-
- 6 sion of law, the United States may not provide any fund-
- 7 ing to the United Nations for a fiscal year unless, before
- 8 the last day of the preceding fiscal year, the President
- 9 makes the certification described in subsection (b).
- 10 (b) CERTIFICATION.—The certification described in
- 11 this subsection is a certification submitted to the Congress
- 12 by the President, that states that the United Nations has
- 13 not taken action to restrict, attempt to restrict, or other-
- 14 wise adversely infringe on the rights of individuals in the
- 15 United States to possess a firearm or ammunition, includ-
- 16 ing by imposing burdens on international commerce, or
