IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 17, 2012

Mr. BRALEY of Iowa (for himself and Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To establish a common fund to pay claims to the Americans held hostage in Iran, and to members of their families, who are identified as class members in case number 1:08-CV-00487 (EGS) of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Justice for the Amer-
5 ican Diplomats Held Hostage in Tehran Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) In 1979, agents of the Islamic Republic of 4 Iran stormed the United States Embassy in Tehran,
5 taking American military and diplomatic personnel
6 hostage.

7 (2) The Iranian Government then held United 8 States Embassy personnel as hostages for 444 days, 9 subjecting them to profound physical and mental 10 abuse, and forcing the United States to negotiate
11 their release, under duress.

12 (3) In the resultant agreement (commonly 13 known as the Algiers Accords) the United States 14 agreed, among other steps, to bar and preclude the 15 hostages from prosecuting any claim against Iran in 16 United States courts.

17 (4) The Algiers Accords were never submitted
18 to Congress for ratification and none of the hostages 19 or their family members was consulted by the 20 United States Government or consented to these 21 provisions precluding prosecution of their claims.

22 (5) Notwithstanding the applicability of legal 23 principles which allowed the United States to re-
24 nounce this obligation to bar and preclude the pros-
25 ecution of claims in United States courts because 26 they were so clearly negotiated under duress, the

1 United States Government has repeatedly intervened
2 in United States courts to preclude the prosecution
3 of any claim by the hostages against Iran, arguing
4 that, in its opinion, compliance with this agreement
5 served overriding national security interests which 6 justified the taking of the hostages' right to pursue
7 compensation from Iran in United States courts.

8 (6) The United States Government has failed to 9 propose any process by which the hostages and their 10 family members could be compensated for the inju-11 ries and damages suffered by them by reason of the 12 horrific and heinous treatment while in captivity.

13 (7) Congress has determined that the provision
14 of compensation to the hostages and their families
15 through, among other sources, funds obtained by 16 vesting and liquidating property in which Iran and 17 its surrogates claim an interest (including any funds 18 held by the United States, including in trust) is fully 19 consistent with the Algiers Accords.

20 (8) Congress has determined that, only upon 21 the payment of such compensation, should the agree-22 ment by the United States Government to bar and 23 preclude prosecution of such claims in United States
24 courts be confirmed and ratified by legislation, not-

1 withstanding the duress under which the United 2 States originally negotiated that agreement.

3 SEC. 3. JUSTICE FOR FORMER AMERICAN HOSTAGES IN 4 IRAN.

5 (a) COMMON FUND FOR HOSTAGES.—Not later than 6 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the
