21       for unacceptable performance;
22                   (ii) terminate an appointment to a po-
23       sition excepted from the competitive service
24       because of its confidential policy-making,

1                   policy-determining, or policy-advocating 2                   character; or

3                   (iii) reassign an employee outside such 4                   employee's locality pay area when the 5                   Commission determines that the reassign-

19                  (ii) LIMITATION.—Notwithstanding
20                  clause (i), if the employee was receiving a 21                  higher rate of basic pay on a temporary 22                  basis (because of a temporary assignment,
23                  temporary promotion, or other temporary 24                  action) immediately before the date of 25                  transfer, the Commission may reduce the

1                   rate of basic pay on the date on which the 2                   rate would have been reduced but for the 3                   transfer, and the protected rate for the re-4                   mainder of the 3-year period shall be the 5                   reduced rate that would have applied, but 6                   for the transfer.

7                   (B) EXCEPTIONS.—Subparagraph (A) does 8                   not limit the right of the Commission to reduce 9                   the rate of basic pay of a transferred em-
10                  ployee—

- 11                   (i) for cause or for unacceptable per-12                  formance; or
- 13                   (ii) with the consent of the employee.

14                   (C) PROTECTION ONLY WHILE EM-
15                  PLOYED.—Subparagraph (A) applies to a trans-
16                  ferred employee only while that employee re-
17                  mains employed by the Commission.

18                   (D) PAY INCREASES PERMITTED.—Sub-

11       (c) CONTRACTS.—The Commission may make, enter
12 into, and perform such contracts, grants, leases, coopera-

3 fiscal year, as the Commission determines is necessary to 4 carry out the functions of the Commission, including those 5 transferred by title II of this Act. Any amounts in the 11 year is reasonably likely to be 10 percent (or 12 more) greater or less than the costs described 13 in paragraph (1) for the fiscal year. If the Com-

14 mission so determines, the Commission shall by 15 order, no later than March 1 of the fiscal year,

3                         applicable under this subsection for a fiscal year not 4                         later than 30 days after such rates are set, together
5                         with any estimates or projections on which the fee 6                         rates are based.

7                         (5) INAPPLICABILITY OF RULEMAKING RE-
8                         QUIREMENTS.—In exercising its authority under this 9                         subsection, the Commission shall not be required to
