S. 2078

To enable Federal and State chartered banks and thrifts to meet the credit needs of the Nation's home builders, and to provide liquidity and ensure stable credit for meeting the Nation's need for new homes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

February 7, 2012

Mr. Menendez introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs

A BILL

To enable Federal and State chartered banks and thrifts to meet the credit needs of the Nation's home builders, and to provide liquidity and ensure stable credit for meeting the Nation's need for new homes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "Home Building Lend-
- 5 ing Improvement Act of 2012".
- 6 SEC. 2. PURPOSE.
- 7 It is the purpose of this Act to—

	-
1	(1) immediately provide authority and guidance
2	that Federal and State bank regulators can use to
3	ensure that Federal and State chartered banks and
4	thrifts that provide financing to America's home
5	builders are permitted to make loans, provide ongo-
6	ing liquidity, and ensure stable financing; and
7	(2) enable Federal and State chartered banks
8	and thrifts to provide initial and ongoing credit in
9	a sound manner to America's home builders to aid
10	in restoring liquidity and vitality to the housing
11	market.
12	SEC. 3. COORDINATED RULEMAKING.
13	(a) Initiation of Proceedings.—Not later than 3
14	months after the date of enactment of this Act, the appro-
15	priate Federal banking agencies shall each initiate guid-
16	ance or rulemaking with respect to financial institutions
17	under their respective jurisdictions that make real estate
18	loans to home builders. Such guidance or rulemaking shall
19	provide for the following:
20	(1) Adjustment of the 100 percent of
21	BANK CAPITAL MEASUREMENT.—
22	(A) Loan origination.—Notwithstanding
23	any other provision of law, the measurement of
24	construction loans that triggers additional scrutiny on real estate loans in the lending portfolio of any qualified financial institution shall be 125 percent of bank capital. The Federal banking agencies shall not treat the 125 percent measurement as a hard cap beyond which loans cannot be made, but shall consider other relevant factors besides the concentration of such loans, such as whether the financial institution has in place effective risk management practices that are appropriate for the level and nature of the risk of such loans.

- (B) LENDING DECISIONS.—The appropriate Federal banking agency shall not prevent a qualified financial institution from making a real estate loan to a home builder in good standing that is secured by a viable project, unless there is a legitimate supervisory or accounting reason to do so.
- (2) Prohibition on compelling lenders to call loans in good standing.—
 - (A) Home builders in good standing.—The appropriate Federal banking agency shall not compel a financial institution to call a real estate loan of a home builder that is in good standing.
- (B) Workout activities.—

1	(i) In general.—In any case in
2	which a home builder is in good standing
3	on a real estate loan, but the collateral of
4	the home builder with respect to that loan
5	has decreased in value, based on a pro-
6	jected valuation of a project as completed,
7	the appropriate Federal banking agency
8	shall permit a financial institution to en-
9	gage in workout activities with such home
10	builder to improve the prospects for repay-
11	ment of principal and interest in a manner
12	that is consistent with safe and sound
13	banking principles and the need for credit
14	for home building.
15	(ii) Period of Workout activi-
16	TIES.—Workout activities authorized under
17	clause (i) may be utilized during the 24-
18	month period following the date of
19	issuance of final guidance or regulations
20	under subsection (c).
21	(iii) Effects.—No real estate loan
22	may be required to be charged off during the period established in clause (ii) until

the appropriate Federal banking agency has determined that—

•S 2078 IS

23

24

- (I) the financial institution holding such loan has worked in good faith to consider reasonable workout activities and has adequately provided for any impairment in such loan; or

 (II) the financial institution has
 - (II) the financial institution has not considered reasonable workout activities in a timely manner.
 - (C) RECLASSIFICATION OF LOANS.—The appropriate Federal banking agency shall not require a financial institution to reclassify any real estate loan to a homebuilder in good standing on the balance sheet of such institution, unless there is a legitimate supervisory or accounting reason to do so.
 - (3) No waiting period.—If the provisions of paragraph (2) help to improve the CAMEL composite rating of a financial institution under the Uniform Financial Institutions Rating System from 3, 4, or 5 to 1 or 2 in the next occurring examination of such institution that begins after the date on which final guidance or regulations are issued pursuant to subsection (c), such improved rating shall take effect immediately after the date on which such rating was received.

- 1 (b) Coordination, Consistency, and Com-
- 2 PARABILITY.—Each Federal banking agency shall consult
- 3 and coordinate with the other Federal banking agencies
- 4 for the purpose of assuring, to the extent possible, that
- 5 the guidance or regulations by each such agency and such
- 6 authorities are consistent and comparable with those pre-
- 7 scribed by the other such agencies and authorities.
- 8 (c) Deadline.—Each Federal banking agency shall
- 9 issue final guidance or regulations to implement this Act
- 10 not later than the earlier of—
- 11 (1) 6 months after the date of enactment of
- this Act; or
- 13 (2) 3 months after such guidance or regulations
- 14 are proposed.
- 15 (d) AGENCY AUTHORITY.—The guidance and regula-
- 16 tions issued under this Act shall be enforced by the appro-
- 17 priate Federal banking agencies.
- 18 (e) Effect on State Law.—The guidance and reg-
- 19 ulations issued under this Act shall not supersede the law
- 20 of any State, except to the extent that such law is incon-
- 21 sistent with such rule, and then only to the extent of the
- 22 inconsistency.
- 23 SEC. 4. DEFINITIONS.
- In this Act, the following definitions shall apply:

1	(1) Appropriate federal banking agency;
2	FEDERAL BANKING AGENCY.—The terms "appro-
3	priate Federal banking agency" and "Federal bank-
4	ing agency" have the same meanings as in section
5	3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C.
6	1813).
7	(2) Financial institution.—The term "fi-
8	nancial institution" means an entity regulated by,
9	and under the supervision of, any Federal banking
10	agency.
11	(3) GOOD STANDING.—The term "good stand-
12	ing" means the borrower has made all payments on
13	a real estate loan and any other extensions of credit
14	to the borrower or any affiliated entities in accord-
15	ance with the agreements for such loans.
16	(4) Real estate loan.—The term "real es-
17	tate loan" means any indebtedness secured by a
18	mortgage, deed of trust, or other equivalent consen-
19	sual security interest on real property, for—
20	(A) land acquisition for residential con-
21	struction projects;
22	(B) land development for residential con-
23	struction projects; or
24	(C) residential construction projects.

- 1 (5) TOTAL CAPITAL.—The term "total capital"
 2 means the total risk-based capital of a financial in3 stitution as reported periodically by such institution
 4 in the Call Report or Thrift Financial Reports of the 5 Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council,
 6 as applicable.
 - (6) VIABLE PROJECT.—The term "viable project" means a real estate project that continues to have a reasonable prospect of reaching completion and sale within a reasonable timeframe, and at a market price that provides for the orderly and timely repayment of the real estate loan.
 - (7) Workout activities.—The term "workout activities" means techniques to prevent default on a real estate loan, including a renewal or extension of loan terms, extension of additional credit, restructuring, loan write downs, or flexibility on using reappraisal methods that still provide credible value conclusions.
 - (8) QUALIFIED FINANCIAL INSTITUTION DE-FINED.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term "qualified financial institution" means a financial institution that received, in the most recent examination of the institution, a CAMEL composite rating

- 1 of 1 or 2 under the Uniform Financial Institutions
- 2 Rating System.

 \bigcirc