

113TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. J. RES. 128

To authorize the use of United States Armed Forces against the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 19, 2014

Mr. LARSON of Connecticut introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on Rules, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

JOINT RESOLUTION

To authorize the use of United States Armed Forces against the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant.

Whereas the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) has committed gruesome atrocities in Iraq and Syria;

Whereas ISIL has been instigating sectarian violence that threatens the stability of the Middle East region and the national security interest of the United States;

Whereas ISIL has directly threatened the United States and has kidnapped and killed United States citizens in Syria;

Whereas such acts continue to pose an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States;

Whereas such acts render it both necessary and appropriate that the United States exercise its rights to self-defense and to protect United States citizens both at home and abroad;

Whereas consistent with the War Powers Resolution (Public Law 93–148), the President authorized a series of limited airstrikes in Iraq to protect United States personnel and support certain humanitarian operations; and

Whereas continued use of the United States Armed Forces after the time limitations specified in section 5(b) of the War Powers Act requires authorization by the United States Congress: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This joint resolution may be cited as the “Authorization
5 for Use of Military Force Against ISIL Resolution”.

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 It is the sense of Congress that—

8 (1) the President has rightly committed limited
9 forces in Iraq to protect United States diplomatic
10 and military personnel against the threat of the Is-
11 lamic State of Iraq and the Levant (“ISIL”);

12 (2) the President should be commended for au-
13 thorizing military operations to protect ethnic and 14 religious minorities from slaughter at the hands of 15 ISIL and for providing assistance to prevent a hu-
16 manitarian disaster;

1 (3) the President should be commended for
2 working with North Atlantic Treaty Organization al-
3 lies to form a coordinated world response to the 4 threat of ISIL;

5 (4) if the President determines that it is nec-
6 essary to use the United States Armed Forces
7 against ISIL, the President—

8 (A) should seek consensus in the United
9 Nations Security Council prior to pursuing a
10 multilateral military campaign against ISIL;

11 (B) should endeavor to form a coalition of 12 allies as broadly based as practicable to support
13 and participate with the United States Armed 14 Forces; and

15 (C) should seek equal participation and as-
16 sistance from members of the Arab League; and

17 (5) although military intervention might be nec-
18 essary to significantly disrupt and degrade ISIL's
19 activities and operational capabilities in Iraq and
20 Syria, a negotiated political solution among ethnic
21 groups is the only sure solution to end sectarian vio-
22 lence and reach permanent peace.

3 UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESO-

10 vant (“ISIL”); and
11 (2) enforce a United Nations Security Council
12 resolution adopted on or after the date of the enact-
13 ment of this joint resolution that—
14 (A) provides for multilateral action against
15 ISIL, including sanctions, humanitarian assist-
16 ance to those affected by the violence, and the 17 protection of civilians, refugees, nongovern-
18 mental organization workers and journalists;
19 and
20 (B) authorizes a military force, formed by 21 a coalition of nations, including members of the 22 Arab League, under the auspices of the United 23 Nations Security Council for the individual and 24 collective self-defense against ISIL and to de-

12 ISIL; or

13 (B) the United Nations Security Council has
