1 (b) EMPLOYER PRACTICES.—It shall be an unlawful 2 employment practice for an employer—

3 (1) to fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any 4 individual, or otherwise to discriminate against any 5 individual with respect to the individual's compensa-
6 tion, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, 7 because of such individual's military service; or 8 (2) to limit, segregate, or classify the employ-9 er's employees or applicants for employment in any 10 way which would deprive or tend to deprive any indi-

13 because of such individual's military service.

14 (c) EMPLOYMENT AGENCY PRACTICES.—It shall be 15 an unlawful employment practice for an employment agen-

4 (2) to limit, segregate, or classify its member-5 ship or applicants for membership, or to classify or 6 fail or refuse to refer for employment any individual, 7 in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive 8 any individual of employment opportunities, or 9 would limit such employment opportunities or other-10 wise adversely affect the individual's status as an 11 employee or as an applicant for employment, be-12 cause of such individual's military service; or

13 (3) to cause or attempt to cause an employer to 14 discriminate against an individual in violation of this 15 section.

16 (e) TRAINING PROGRAMS.—It shall be an unlawful 17 employment practice for any employer, labor organization, 18 or joint labor-management committee controlling appren-19 ticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-

21 vidual because of the individual's military service in admis-
22 sion to, or employment in, any program established to pro-23 vide apprenticeship or other training.

24 (f) BUSINESSES OR ENTERPRISES WITH PERSONNEL
25 QUALIFIED ON BASIS OF MILITARY SERVICE.—Notwith-

1 standing any other provision of this section, it shall not 2 be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to 3 hire and employ employees, for an employment agency to 4 classify, or refer for employment any individual, for a 5 labor organization to classify its membership or to classify 6 or refer for employment any individual, or for an em-
7 ployer, labor organization, or joint labor-management 8 committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or 9 retraining programs to admit or employ any individual in 10 any such program, on the basis of the individual's military 11 service in those certain instances where military service
12 is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably nec-
13 essary to the normal operation of that particular business 14 or enterprise.

15 (g) NATIONAL SECURITY.—Notwithstanding any 16 other provision of this section, it shall not be an unlawful 17 employment practice for an employer to fail or refuse to 18 hire and employ any individual for any position, for an

20 or for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer any 21 individual for employment in any position, or for a labor 22 organization to fail or refuse to refer any individual for 23 employment in any position, if—

24 (1) the occupancy of such position, or access to 4 any security program in effect pursuant to or ad-

6 any Executive order of the President; and 7 (2) such individual has not fulfilled or has 8 ceased to fulfill that requirement.

9 (h) SENIORITY OR MERIT SYSTEM; QUANTITY OR 10 QUALITY OF PRODUCTION; ABILITY TESTS.—Notwith-

14 terms, conditions, or privileges of employment pursuant 15 to a bona fide seniority or merit system, or a system which 16 measures earnings by quantity or quality of production or 17 to employees who work in different locations, provided 18 that such differences are not the result of an intention 19 to discriminate because of military service, nor shall it be 20 an unlawful employment practice for an employer to give 21 and to act upon the results of any professionally developed 22 ability test provided that such test, its administration, or 23 action upon the results is not designed, intended, or used 24 to discriminate because of military service.

1 (i) PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT NOT TO BE GRANT-
2 ED ON ACCOUNT OF EXISTING NUMBER OR PERCENTAGE
3 IMBALANCE.—Nothing contained in this section shall be 4 interpreted to require any employer, employment agency,
5 labor organization, or joint labor-management committee 6 subject to this section to grant preferential treatment to 7 any individual or to any group because of the military 8 service of such individual or group on account of an imbal-9 ance which may exist with respect to the total number or 10 percentage of persons with military service employed by 11 any employer, referred or classified for employment by any 12 employment agency or labor organization, admitted to 13 membership or classified by any labor organization, or ad-
14 mitted to, or employed in, any apprenticeship or other 15 training program, in comparison with the total number or 16 percentage of persons with military service in any commu-
17 nity, State, section, or other area, or in the available work
18 force in any community, State, section, or other area.

19 (j) BURDEN OF PROOF IN DISPARATE IMPACT
20 CASES.—

21 (1) DISPARATE IMPACT.—
22 (A) ESTABLISHMENT.—An unlawful em-
23 ployment practice based on disparate impact is 24 established under this section only if—

(i) a complaining party demonstrates that a respondent uses a particular employment practice that causes a disparate impact on the basis of military service and the respondent fails to demonstrate that the challenged practice is job related for the position in question and consistent with business necessity; or

(ii) the complaining party makes the demonstration described in subparagraph (C) with respect to an alternative employment practice and the respondent refuses to adopt such alternative employment practice.

(B) DEMONSTRATION OF CAUSATION.—

(i) PARTICULAR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES.—With respect to demonstrating that a particular employment practice causes a disparate impact as described in subparagraph (A)(i), the complaining party shall demonstrate that each particular challenged employment practice causes a disparate impact, except that if the complaining party can demonstrate to the court that the elements of a respondent's

1 decisionmaking process are not capable of 2 separation for analysis, the decisionmaking
3 process may be analyzed as one employ-
4 ment practice.

5 (ii) DEMONSTRATION OF NONCAUSA-
6 TION.—If the respondent demonstrates 7 that a specific employment practice does 8 not cause the disparate impact, the re-
9 spondent shall not be required to dem-
10 onstrate that such practice is required by 11 business necessity.

12 (C) ALTERNATIVE EMPLOYMENT PRAC-
13 TICE.—The demonstration referred to by sub-14 paragraph (A)(ii) shall be in accordance with 15 the law as it existed on June 4, 1989, with re-
16 spect to the concept of “alternative employment 17 practice”.

18 (2) BUSINESS NECESSITY NO DEFENSE TO IN-19 TENTIONAL DISCRIMINATION.—A demonstration
20 that an employment practice is required by business 21 necessity may not be used as a defense against a 22 claim of intentional discrimination under this sec-
23 tion.

24 (3) RULES CONCERNING CONTROLLED SUB-
25 STANCES.—Notwithstanding any other provision of 1 this section, a rule barring the employment of an in-2 dividual who currently and knowingly uses or pos-

3 sesses a controlled substance, as defined in section 4 102(6) of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C.
5 802(6)) and included in schedule I or II of the 6 schedules specified in that section, other than the 7 use or possession of a drug taken under the super-8 vision of a licensed health care professional, or any 9 other use or possession authorized by the Controlled 10 Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 801 et seq.) or any other 11 provision of Federal law, shall be considered an un-12 lawful employment practice under this section only if 13 such rule is adopted or applied with an intent to dis-
14 criminate because of military service.

15 (k) PROHIBITION OF DISCRIMINATORY USE OF TEST 16 SCORES.—It shall be an unlawful employment practice for 17 a respondent, in connection with the selection or referral
18 of applicants or candidates for employment or promotion, 19 to adjust the scores of, use different cutoff scores for, or 20 otherwise alter the results of, employment related tests on 21 the basis of military service.

22 (l) IMPERMISSIBLE CONSIDERATION OF MILITARY
23 SERVICE IN EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES.—Except as other-24 wise provided in this section, an unlawful employment 25 practice is established when the complaining party dem-

1 onstrates that military service was a motivating factor for 2 any employment practice, even though other factors also 3 motivated the practice.

4 (m) RESOLUTION OF CHALLENGES TO EMPLOYMENT
5 PRACTICES IMPLEMENTING LITIGATED OR CONSENT
6 JUDGMENTS OR ORDERS.—

7 (1) PRACTICES NOT CHALLENGEABLE.—

8 (A) PRACTICES TO IMPLEMENT A LITI-
9 GATED OR CONSENT JUDGMENT OR ORDER.—

10 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 11 and except as provided in paragraph (2), an 12 employment practice that implements and is 13 within the scope of a litigated or consent judg-
14 ment or order that resolves a claim of employ-15 ment discrimination under the Constitution or 16 Federal civil rights laws may not be challenged
17 under the circumstances described in subpara-
18 graph (B).

19 (B) CIRCUMSTANCES.—A practice de-
20 scribed in subparagraph (A) may not be chal-
21 lenged in a claim under the Constitution or 22 Federal civil rights laws—

23 (i) by a person who, prior to the entry
24 of the judgment or order described in sub-25 paragraph (A), had—

10 (II) a reasonable opportunity to 11 present objections to such judgment 12 or order; or

20 (2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this 21 subsection shall be construed to—

1 rule in the proceeding in which the parties in-2 tervened;

3 (B) apply to the rights of parties to the ac-4 tion in which a litigated or consent judgment or 5 order was entered, or of members of a class 6 represented or sought to be represented in such 7 action, or of members of a group on whose be-8 half relief was sought in such action by the 9 Federal Government;

10 (C) prevent challenges to a litigated or 11 consent judgment or order on the ground that 12 such judgment or order was obtained through 13 collusion or fraud, or is transparently invalid or 14 was entered by a court lacking subject matter 15 jurisdiction; or

16 (D) authorize or permit the denial to any 17 person of the due process of law required by the 18 Constitution.

19 (3) COURT FOR ACTIONS THAT ARE 20 CHALLENGEABLE.—Any action not precluded under 21 this subsection that challenges an employment con-
22 sent judgment or order described in paragraph (1)
23 shall be brought in the court, and if possible before 24 the judge, that entered such judgment or order.
25 Nothing in this subsection shall preclude a transfer

1 of such action pursuant to section 1404 of title 28, 2 United States Code.

3 (n) DISCRIMINATION FOR MAKING CHARGES, TESTI-
4 FYING, ASSISTING, OR PARTICIPATING IN ENFORCEMENT
5 PROCEEDINGS.—It shall be an unlawful employment prac-6 tice for an employer to discriminate against any of the 7 employer's employees or applicants for employment, for an 8 employment agency, or joint labor-management committee
9 controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, 10 including on-the-job training programs, to discriminate
11 against any individual, or for a labor organization to dis-12 criminate against any member thereof or applicant for 13 membership, because the employee, applicant, individuals, 14 or member involved has opposed any practice made an un-
15 lawful employment practice by this section, or has made 16 a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner 17 in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this sec-
18 tion.

19 (o) PRINTING OR PUBLICATION OF NOTICES OR AD-
20 VERTISEMENTS.—It shall be an unlawful employment
21 practice for an employer, labor organization, employment 22 agency, or joint labor-management committee controlling 23 apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including 24 on-the-job training programs, to print or publish or cause 25 to be printed or published any notice or advertisement re-

1 relating to employment by such an employer or membership 2 in or any classification or referral for employment by such 3 a labor organization, or relating to any classification or 4 referral for employment by such an employment agency, 5 or relating to admission to, or employment in, any pro-
6 gram established to provide apprenticeship or other train-7 ing by such a joint labor-management committee, indi-
8 cating any preference, limitation, specification, or dis-
9 crimination, based on military service, except that such a 10 notice or advertisement may indicate a preference, limita-11 tion, specification, or discrimination based on military 12 service when military service is a bona fide occupational 13 qualification for employment.

14 (p) EXEMPTIONS.—

15 (1) INAPPLICABILITY OF TITLE TO CERTAIN
16 ALIENS.—This section shall not apply to an em-
17 ployer with respect to the employment of aliens out-18 side any State.

19 (2) COMPLIANCE WITH STATUTE AS VIOLATION
20 OF FOREIGN LAW.—It shall not be unlawful under 21 this section for an employer (or a corporation con-22 trolled by an employer), labor organization, employ-23 ment agency, or joint labor-management committee
24 controlling apprenticeship or other training or re-25 training (including on-the-job training programs) to 1 take any action otherwise prohibited by such section, 2 with respect to an employee in a workplace in a for-3 eign country if compliance with such section would 4 cause such employer (or such corporation), such or-5 ganization, such agency, or such committee to vio-

6 late the law of the foreign country in which such 7 workplace is located.

8 (3) CONTROL OF CORPORATION INCORPORATED
9 IN FOREIGN COUNTRY.—

10 (A) IN GENERAL.—If an employer controls
11 a corporation whose place of incorporation is a 12 foreign country, any practice prohibited by this 13 section engaged in by such corporation shall be

15 (B) FOREIGN PERSON NOT CONTROLLED
16 BY EMPLOYER.—This section shall not apply 17 with respect to the foreign operations of an em-18 ployer that is a foreign person not controlled by 19 an American employer.

21 section, the determination of whether an em-22 ployer controls a corporation shall be based 23 on—

- 24 (i) the interrelation of operations;
25 (ii) the common management;

11 (q) POSTING NOTICES.—Every employer, employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee covered under this section shall post notices to applicants, employees, and members describing the applicable provisions of this section, in the manner prescribed by section 711 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e-10).

18 (r) REGULATIONS.—Not later than 90 days after the 19 date of enactment of this Act, the Commission shall issue 20 regulations to carry out this section in accordance with 21 subchapter II of chapter 5 of title 5, United States Code.

(s) ENFORCEMENT.—The powers, remedies, and procedures set forth in sections 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, and 712 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e-4, 2000e-5, 2000e-6, 2000e-7, 2000e-8, 2000e-
