A BILL

To amend the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 to eliminate the use of valid court orders to secure lockup of status offenders, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Prohibiting Detention
5 of Youth Status Offenders Act of 2014”.

1 SEC. 2. DEINSTITUTIONALIZATION OF STATUS OFFENDERS.

2 Section 223 of the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency
3 Prevention Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5633) is amended—

4 (1) in subsection (a)(11)—

5 (A) by striking “shall” the first place it
6 appears;

7 (B) in subparagraph (A)—

8 (i) in clause (i), by inserting “and” at 9 the end;

10 (ii) in clause (ii), by striking “and” at
11 the end;

12 (iii) by striking clause (iii); and

13 (iv) in the matter following clause (iii)
14 by striking “and” at the end;

15 (C) in subparagraph (B), by striking
16 “and” at the end; and

17 (D) by adding at the end the following:

18 “(C) if a court determines the juvenile 19 should be placed in a secure detention facility
20 or correctional facility for violating an order de-
21 scribed in subparagraph (A)(ii)—

22 “(i) the court shall issue a written
23 order that—

24 “(I) identifies the valid court
25 order that has been violated;

1           “(II) specifies the factual basis
2           for determining that there is reason-
3           able cause to believe that the juvenile 4           has violated such order;

5           “(III) includes findings of fact to 6           support a determination that there is 7           no appropriate less restrictive alter-
8           native available to placing the juvenile 9           in such a facility, with due consider-
10          ation to the best interest of the juve-
11          nile;

12          “(IV) specifies the length of time,
13          not to exceed 3 days, that the juvenile 14          may remain in a secure detention fa-
15          cility or correctional facility, and in-
16          cludes a plan for the juvenile’s release
17          from such facility; and

18          “(V) may not be renewed or ex-
19          tended; and

20          “(ii) the court may not issue a second
21          or subsequent order described in clause (i)
22          relating to a juvenile, unless the juvenile 23          violates a valid court order after the date
24          on which the court issues an order de-
25          scribed in clause (i);

1           “(D) there are procedures in place to en-
2           sure that any juvenile held in a secure detention
3           facility or correctional facility pursuant to a
4           court order described in this paragraph does 5           not remain in custody longer than 3 days (with 6           the exception of weekends and holidays) or the 7           length of time authorized by the court, or au-
8           thorized under applicable State law, whichever
9           is shorter;

10           “(E) juvenile status offenders detained or 11           confined in a secure detention facility or correc-
12           tional facility pursuant to a court order as de-
13           scribed in this paragraph may only be detained
14           in secure custody one time in any six-month pe-
15           riod, provided that all conditions set forth in 16           subsection (D) are satisfied; and

17           “(F) not later than one year after the date
18           of enactment of this subparagraph, with a sin-
19           gle one-year extension if the State can dem-
20           onstrate hardship as determined by the Admin-
21           istrator, the State will eliminate the use of valid
22           court orders as described in paragraph (A)(ii)
23           to provide secure lockup of status offenders;”; 24           and

25           (2) by adding at the end the following:

1       “(g) APPLICATIONS FOR EXTENSION FOR COMPLI-
2 ANCE.—States may apply for a single one-year extension
3 to comply with subsection (a)(11). To apply, State must 4 submit an application to the Administrator describing—

5           “(1) the State’s measurable progress and good
6 faith effort to reduce the number of status offenders
7 who are placed in a secure detention facility or cor-
8 rectional facility pursuant to a court order as de-9 scribed in this paragraph; and

10          “(2) the State’s plan to come into compliance 11 not later than 1 year after the date of extension.”.
