A BILL

To amend the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act to eliminate benefits under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program for Members of Congress so they are treated the same way as other taxpayers, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; FINDINGS.

4       (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5       “Members Play By the Same Rules Act of 2014”.

1       (b) FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.—

2                 (1) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that Members
3                 of Congress are subject to the mandatory coverage
4                 requirements of Affordable Care Act under section 5                 5000A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 in the 6                 same manner as other taxpayers, but are now per-7                 mitted to meet such requirements through participa-
8                 tion and benefits under the Federal Employees
9                 Health Benefits Program (FEHBP).

10                 (2) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to 11                 eliminate coverage of Members of Congress under 12                 FEHBP so they are treated in the same manner as 13                 other taxpayers.

14       SEC. 2. ELIMINATING FEHBP BENEFITS FOR MEMBERS OF 15                              CONGRESS.

16                 Section 1312(d)(3)(D) of the Patient Protection and 17                 Affordable Care Act (42 U.S.C. 18032(d)(3)(D)) is 18                 amended by adding at the end the following new clause:

19                         “(iii) ELIMINATION OF FEHBP BENE-
20                         FITS WITH RESPECT TO MEMBERS SERV-
21                         ING ON OR AFTER MARCH 23, 2010; INDIVI-
22                         DUAL COVERAGE THROUGH AN EX-
23                         CHANGE.—Notwithstanding any other pro-
24                         vision of law, effective as of January 1, 25                         2015, the following rules apply in carrying

1                   out this subparagraph, chapter 89 of title
2                   5, United States Code, and section 5000A
3                   of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986:

4                         “(I) ELIMINATION OF FEHBP
5                         BENEFITS.—In the case of an indi-
6                         vidual who serves as a Member of 7                         Congress on or after March 23, 2010, 8                         such an individual in the status as 9                         such a Member (including as a former 10                        Member or as a member of a family,
11                        former spouse, or survivor of such a 12                        Member or former Member) is not eli-13                        gible to obtain coverage under, or any 14                        Government contribution towards the 15                        premium for, a health benefits plan
16                        under chapter 89 of title 5, United 17                        States Code.

18                         “(II) INDIVIDUAL COVERAGE
19                         THROUGH AN EXCHANGE PLAN.—A 20                         Member of Congress representing a 21                         Congressional district in a State or, in 22                         the case of a Senator, representing a
23                         State may satisfy the minimum essen-
24                         tial coverage requirement of section
25                         5000A of the Internal Revenue Code

1                   of 1986 through coverage described in 2                   subsection (f)(1)(C) of such Code (re-
3                   lating to coverage in the individual
4                   market) only through enrollment in a
5                   health plan offered through the Fed-
6                   eral or State Exchange for residents
7                   of such district or such State, respec-
8                   tively.”.
