3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE AND TABLE OF CONTENTS.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the
5 “Promoting Apprenticeships for Credentials and Employ-
6 ment Act” or the “PACE Act”.

7 (b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents for
8 this Act is as follows:

- Sec. 1. Short title and table of contents.
- Sec. 2. Findings and purposes.

See. 3. Definitions.

TITLE I—PROMOTING REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIPS

Sec. 101. Promoting registered apprenticeship programs.

Sec. 102. Promoting integration with postsecondary education.

TITLE II—PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT AND ENHANCEMENT

Sec. 201. Expanding registered apprenticeship programs.

TITLE III—CONFORMING AMENDMENTS

Sec. 301. Amendments.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

3 (1) A highly skilled workforce is necessary to
4 compete in the global economy, support economic
5 growth, and maintain the standard of living of the 6 United States.

7 (2) The registered apprenticeship program
8 model is a longstanding, on-the-job training and
9 education model that prepares workers for the skill
10 demands of particular occupations and employers
11 while, at the same time, providing the workers with 12 recognized, portable credentials, and wages while in 13 training.

14 (3) The registered apprenticeship program
15 model has been successful in skilled trade industries,
16 including construction and manufacturing, as well as
17 service industries, such as health care, and holds
18 great potential for expansion into other industries.

1 (4) Registered apprenticeship programs are an
2 essential element of an effective workforce develop-
3 ment system and help individuals attain a recognized
4 postsecondary credential, contributing to their per-
5 sonal economic sustainability.

6 (5) According to a report from the Georgetown
7 University Center on Education and the Workforce,
8 by 2018, the United States will face a shortage of
9 workers with recognized postsecondary credentials—
10 shortages of 3,000,000 workers with degrees and
11 4,700,000 workers with certificates.

12 (6) According to a 2012 report from the Annie
13 E. Casey Foundation, youth employment in the 14 United States has reached the lowest point since
15 World War II. More than 6,000,000 young people
16 ages 16 through 24 are disconnected from school
17 and work.

18 (7) A 2012 evaluation of registered apprenticeship
19 programs in 10 States by Mathematica Policy
20 Research found that—

21 (A) individuals who completed registered
22 apprenticeship programs earned over $240,000
23 more over their careers than individuals not
24 participating in such apprenticeship programs;

1 (B) the estimated social benefits of reg-
2 istered apprenticeship programs exceeded their
3 costs by more than $49,000; and

4 (C) the tax return on every Federal Gov-
5 ernment dollar invested in registered appren-
6 ticeship programs was $27.

7 (8) An evaluation in Washington State found
8 the following:

9 (A) Registered apprenticeship programs
10 have been among the most effective workforce
11 development programs, with the highest impact
12 and the greatest return on investment of any
13 such program.

14 (B) For each individual who completes a
15 registered apprenticeship program, over the in-
16 dividual's career, there is a 90-to-1 return on 17 investment, for a total net benefit of just over
18 $300,000 for that career.

19 (C) The general public also receives a life-
20 time return on investment of 23-to-1, or around
21 $80,000, for each person completing a reg-
22 istered apprenticeship program.

23 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

- 1 (1) to increase the number of highly skilled
2 workers in the United States, particularly in in-de-
3 mand industry sectors and occupations;
- 4 (2) to increase the attainment of recognized
5 postsecondary credentials by participants;
- 6 (3) to increase awareness about the value of the 7 registered apprenticeship program model as an effec-
8 tive earn-and-learn model for students, workers, and 9 employers;
- 10 (4) to support the development of registered ap-
11 prenticeship programs with employers, joint labor
12 management partnerships, and other program spon-
13 sors, that offer jobs that lead to economic self-suffi-
14 ciency;
- 15 (5) to support the development and expansion
16 of pre-apprenticeship programs that lead to success
17 in a registered apprenticeship program; and
- 18 (6) to support a closer alignment between reg-
19 istered apprenticeship programs, the workforce de-
20 velopment system, and postsecondary education.
