

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 217

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that the Federal, State, and local police officers who have fallen while fulfilling their duty both in Michigan and the United States should be honored for their sacrifice and commitment to preserving law and order.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 15, 2013

Mr. BENTIVOLIO submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that the Federal, State, and local police officers who have fallen while fulfilling their duty both in Michigan and the United States should be honored for their sacrifice and commitment to preserving law and order.

Whereas the week of May 12, 2013, through May 18, 2013, has been designated as “National Police Week”;

Whereas the brave men and women who serve on the Federal, State, and local levels put themselves in harm’s way to protect and preserve the safety and security of law-abiding citizens on a daily basis;

Whereas in 2012 alone, at least 120 Federal, State, and local police officers died in the line of duty while fulfilling their oath to uphold the law; and

Whereas in Michigan, 564 known police officers have died in the line of duty since 1791: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Rep-
2 resentatives that the Federal, State, and local police offi-
3 cers who have fallen while fulfilling their duty both in
4 Michigan and the United States should be honored for
5 their sacrifice and commitment to preserving law and 6 order.
