

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 261

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that Members of Congress should support and promote the respectful and dignified disposal of worn and tattered American flags.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 13, 2013

Mr. LIPINSKI (for himself, Mr. DUNCAN of Tennessee, Mr. AMODEI, Mr. MICHAUD, and Mr. BACHUS) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that Members of Congress should support and promote the respectful and dignified disposal of worn and tattered American flags.

Whereas the American flag has represented the United States and American principles at home and abroad for over 200 years;

Whereas the American flag is seen as a symbol of freedom and democracy at home and abroad;

Whereas the United States Armed Forces have proudly raised the American flag in conflicts overseas for generations;

Whereas the evolution of the American flag design is a window into United States history and government;

Whereas President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed June 14, 1917, as a day for United States citizens to come together to celebrate “Flag Day”;

Whereas in 1949, Congress officially designated June 14 as “Flag Day”, and in 1966 designated the week in which June 14 occurs as “National Flag Week”;

Whereas every “Flag Day”, United States citizens are called upon to display American flags in and around their homes;

Whereas the American flag accompanies the caskets of men and women in the United States Armed Forces who have given the ultimate sacrifice for their Nation;

Whereas the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Boy Scouts of America, and other organizations perform a public service by conducting dignified flag disposal services;

Whereas in the City of Chicago, Illinois, a recent statute allows worn and tattered flags to be brought to police and fire stations for proper and respectful disposal;

Whereas the United States Flag Code sets standards for proper etiquette in displaying, caring for, and repairing the American flag; and

Whereas the United States Flag Code also states that worn or tattered American flags, “should be destroyed in a dignified manner, preferably by burning”: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense the House of Represent-
2 atives that—

3 (1) elected Members of Congress should work to
4 promote public awareness of the importance of prop-

1 er flag etiquette, including the proper disposal of
2 worn and tattered American flags;

3 (2) elected Members of Congress should work to
4 aid the respectful and dignified disposal of worn and
5 tattered American flags in their districts and among
6 their constituents, and should cooperate with the 7 American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the
8 Boy Scouts of America, and other such organiza-
9 tions in their efforts;

10 (3) the American Legion, the Veterans of For-
11 eign Wars, the Boy Scouts of America, and other or-
12 ganizations that conduct respectful ceremonies dis-
13 posing of worn and tattered American flags should
14 be commended for the public service they perform
15 for all United States citizens; and

16 (4) the City of Chicago, Illinois, should be com-
17 mended for its policies regarding flag disposal, mak-
18 ing it easy and convenient for its citizens to properly
19 dispose of their tattered and worn American flags.
