RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives regarding steps that Congress should take to restore democracy and change the way we do politics in the United States by reducing the influence of money and corporations and promoting the participation of the people in politics and government.

1       Resolved,

2 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

3       This resolution may be cited as the “Restore Democ-
4 racy Resolution”.

1   SEC. 2. PURPOSE.

2       It is the purpose of this resolution to express the
3   sense of the House of Representatives that Congress
4   should—

5           (1) clarify its power to set limits on the amount
6   of money that can be spent on a campaign for elec-
7   tion for Federal office;

8           (2) make clear that corporations are not people
9   for purposes of the First Amendment right to make
10   campaign contributions;

11           (3) confirm that money is not free speech;

12           (4) limit the campaign advertising season to 60
13   days before an election;

14           (5) prohibit candidates from soliciting or col-
15   lecting campaign contributions during legislative ses-
16   sions;

17           (6) protect the constitutional right to vote by 18   expanding online voter registration systems;

19           (7) emphasize the need for compact, contiguous
20   Congressional districts that are not gerrymandered
21   to favor an incumbent or political party; and

22           (8) restore regular order in the legislative proc-
23   ess by requiring bills to go through committee con-
24   sideration and come to the floor under an open rule.

1   TITLE I—REDUCING THE INFLU-
2   ENCE OF MONEY IN POLITICS

3   SEC. 101. REDUCING THE INFLUENCE OF MONEY IN POLI-
4                   TICS.

5       It is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

6                   (1) the case of Citizens United v. Federal Elec-
7                   tion Commission (558 U.S. 310) opened the door to 8                   the corrupting influence of money in politics;

9                   (2) in order to restore the American people's 10                  faith in the integrity of their elected government,
11                  Congress should have the power to regulate the rais-
12                  ing and spending of money and in-kind equivalents
13                  with respect to Federal elections, including through 14                  regulating—

15                   (A) the amount of contributions to can-
16                  didates for nomination or election to Federal of-
17                  fice,

18                   (B) the amount of expenditures that may 19                  be made by, in support of, or in opposition to 20                  such candidates, and

21                   (C) the content and integrity of such ex-
22                  penditures; and

23                   (3) all political contributions should be publicly
24                  disclosed, including those made to or by independent

1 groups, so that voters have complete information
2 about who is paying for political advertisements.

3 TITLE II—PROVIDING FOR PUB-
4 LIC FINANCING OF ELEC-
5 TIONS

6 SEC. 201. PROVIDING FOR PUBLIC FINANCING OF ELEC-
7 TIONS.

8 It is the sense of the House of Representatives that,
9 in order to eliminate the undue influence of money in poli-
10 tics—

11 (1) Congress should create a public finance sys-
12 tem for Congressional elections, which will ensure 13 that Congress is responsible to voters instead of 14 well-financed special interests; and

15 (2) Members of Congress should devote their 16 full time to regular order and governing instead of 17 campaign fundraising.

18 TITLE III—LIMITING THE
19 CAMPAIGN SEASON

20 SEC. 301. LIMITING THE CAMPAIGN SEASON.

21 It is the sense of the House of Representatives that—
22 (1) Congress should have the power to imple-
23 ment and enforce limits on when money can be
24 spent on campaign activities;

1                             (2) registered candidates for Congressional elec-
2                             tions should not be allowed to expend campaign
3                             funds on advertising more than 60 days before a pri-
4                             mary or general election;

5                             (3) candidates for Congressional office, both in-
6                             cumbents and challengers, should not be allowed to 7                             solicit or collect campaign contributions during the 8                             hours in which Congress is in session; and

9                             (4) States should create a single Congressional 10                             primary date to increase voter education and partici-
11                             pation.

12                             TITLE IV—PROTECTING THE
13                                     RIGHT TO VOTE

14                             SEC. 401. PROTECTING THE RIGHT TO VOTE.

15                             It is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

16                             (1) Congress has the power to prohibit voter 17                             suppression activities; and

18                             (2) in order to increase voter access and participa-
19                             tion, Congress should require every State to create 20                             and maintain an online voter registration system.

1 TITLE V—ELIMINATING PAR-

2 TISAN REDISTRICTING AND

3 GERRYMANDERING

4 SEC. 501. ELIMINATING PARTISAN REDISTRICTING AND
5 GERRYMANDERING.

6 It is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

(3) Congressional districts should adhere to the existing standards of equal population; and

19 TITLE VI—REQUIRING REGULAR
20 ORDER IN HOUSE AND SENATE

21 SEC. 601. REQUIRING REGULAR ORDER IN THE HOUSE AND 22 SENATE.

23 It is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

1                         (1) it should not be in order to consider a bill
2                         or resolution in the House unless each committee to 3                         which the bill or resolution is referred—

4                             (A) had a hearing on the bill or resolution
5                         at which amendments were permitted to be of-
6                         fered and debated and a vote was taken on each 7                         amendment offered and on final passage, and

8                             (B) filed a report with respect to the bill
9                         or resolution;

10                         (2) a conference report should not be filed in 11                         the House unless—

12                             (A) the conference committee held at least 13                         3 meetings in which all members of the con-
14                         ference committee were present,

15                             (B) all items of difference between the 16                         House and Senate were addressed, voted on,
17                         and resolved by the full conference committee,
18                         and

19                             (C) printed or electronic copies of the con-
20                         ference report and the accompanying joint ex-
21                         planatory statement were available to Members
22                         and Delegates for at least 72 hours prior to fil-
23                         ing;

1                   (3) the House and Senate should schedule si-
2                   multaneous 5-day work weeks in Washington and
3                   district work periods; and

4                   (4) every bill brought to committee should be
5                   open to amendment and every bill brought to the 6                   floor of the House for a vote should be considered
7                   under an open rule.
