

113TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. 2216

To provide small businesses with a grace period for a regulatory violation, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

APRIL 7, 2014

Mr. PAUL introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

A BILL

To provide small businesses with a grace period for a regulatory violation, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Protect Small Business
5 Jobs Act of 2014”.

6 SEC. 2. IN GENERAL.

7 Section 558 of title 5, United States Code, is amend-
8 ed by adding at the end the following:

9 “(d) Before any enforcement action is taken on a 10 sanction on a business for a violation of a rule or pursuant

1 to an adjudication, and subject to subsection (e) and (f), 2 an agency shall—

3 “(1) not later than 10 business days after the 4 date on which the agency determines that the sanc-
5 tion may be imposed on the business, provide notice
6 to the business that, if the business is a small busi-
7 ness, the small business may be subject to a sanction
8 at the end of the grace period described in para-
9 graph (3);

10 “(2) delay any further action relating to the 11 sanction until the end of the 15-calendar day period
12 beginning on the date on which the agency provides 13 notice under paragraph (1);

14 “(3) for a small business—

15 “(A) delay any further action relating to 16 the sanction until not earlier than the end of 17 the 6-month period beginning on the date on 18 which the agency provides notice under para-
19 graph (1); and

20 “(B) upon application by the small busi-
21 ness demonstrating reasonable efforts made in 22 good faith to remedy the violation or other con-23 duct giving rise to the sanction, extending the 24 period under subparagraph (A) by 3 months;

1           “(4) after the end of the period described in 2 paragraph (3), redetermine whether, as of the day
3 after the end of the period, the small business would 4 still be subject to the sanction; and

5           “(5) if the agency determines under paragraph 6 (4) that the small business would not be subject to 7 the sanction, waive the sanction.

8           “(e) If an agency provides notice described in sub-9 section (d)(1) to a business on or after the date that is 10 11 business days after the date on which the agency deter-
11 mines that a sanction may be imposed on the business—

12           “(1) if the agency determines that the same
13 sanction may have been imposed on the business 10
14 business days before the date of the notice, the 15 agency shall take further action in accordance with 16 subsection (d); and

17           “(2) if the agency determines that the same
18 sanction could not have been imposed on the busi-
19 ness 10 business days before the date of the notice,
20 the agency shall waive the sanction and take no fur-
21 ther action relating to imposition of the sanction.

22           “(f) The period during which further action is de-
23 layed under subsection (d)—

24           “(1) shall apply to a business only 1 time in re-
25 lation to any single rule;

1           “(2) until the end of such period, as determined
2           in accordance with subsection (d), shall apply to ac-
3           tion by the agency relating to any subsequent viola-4           tion of the same rule; and

5           “(3) shall not apply to a violation that puts any 6           person in imminent danger, within the meaning
7           given that term under section 13 of the Occupa-
8           tional Safety and Health Act (29 U.S.C. 662).

9           “(g) Nothing in subsection (d) shall be construed to 10          prevent a small business from appealing any sanction im-
11          posed in accordance with the procedures of the agency,
12          or from seeking review under chapter 7.

13          “(h) Any sanction imposed by an agency on a small 14          business for any violation of a rule or pursuant to an adju-15          dication, absent proof of written notice of the sanction and 16          the date on which the agency determined that a sanction 17          may be imposed, or in violation of subsection (d)(3), shall 18          have no force or effect.

19          “(i) Each Federal agency shall submit to the Om-
20          budsman an annual report on the implementation of sub-
21          section (d), including a discussion of the deferral of action 22          relating to and waiver of sanctions on small businesses.

23          “(j) The Ombudsman shall include in the annual re-24          port to Congress required under section 30(b)(2)(C) of the 25          Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 657(b)(2)(C)) the agency

1 reports described by subsection (i) and a summary of the 2 findings.

3 “(k) For purposes of this section—

4 “(1) the term ‘consumer price index’ means the 5 consumer price index for all urban consumers pub-
6 lished by the Department of Labor;

7 “(2) the term ‘CPI adjusted gross receipts’
8 means the amount of gross receipts, divided by the 9 consumer price index for calendar year 2012, and 10 multiplied by the consumer price index for the pre-
11 ceding calendar year, rounded to the nearest mul-
12 tiple of $100,000 (or, if midway between multiples 13 of $100,000, to the next higher multiple of 14 $100,000);

15 “(3) the term ‘Ombudsman’ has the same 16 meaning given such term in section 30(a) of the 17 Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 657(a)); and

18 “(4) term ‘small business’ means any sole pro-
19 prietorship, partnership, corporation, limited liability
20 company, or other business entity, that—

21 “(A) had less than $10,000,000 in gross
22 receipts in the preceding calendar year;

23 “(B) is considered a small-business con-
24 cern (as defined under section 3(a) of the Small 25 Business Act (15 U.S.C. 632(a));

1           “(C) employed fewer than 200 individuals
2           in the preceding calendar year; or

3           “(D) had CPI adjusted gross receipts of 4           less than $10,000,000 in the preceding calendar
5           year.”.
