 ing among facts otherwise available, the administering authority may—

1 “(A) in the case of a countervailing duty
2 proceeding, use a subsidy rate—

3 “(i) calculated with respect to a sub-
4 sidy program involved in the proceeding
5 that is the same or similar to the subsidy
6 program for which a determination is to be
7 made under this section, or, in the absence
8 of such a program, any other subsidy pro-
9 gram involved in the proceeding,

10 “(ii) calculated in another counter-

12 other subsidy program implemented by the 13 country that is implementing the subsidy
14 program for which a determination is to be
15 made under this section unless the admin-
16 istering authority has evidence that export-
17 ers or producers of the subject merchan-
18 dise could not have used such other sub-
19 sidy program, or

20 “(iii) alleged in a petition filed under 21 section 702(b) that was relied on by the

25 proceeding, use—

2 individual sale of the subject merchandise
3 calculated with respect to any exporter or 4 producer involved in the proceeding during 5 the investigation or review,

6 “(ii) an individual weighted average
7 dumping margin calculated with respect to 8 any exporter or producer involved in the 9 proceeding during the investigation or a re-

12 a petition filed under section 732(b) that

16 “(iv) any dumping margin found in 17 another antidumping duty proceeding with 18 respect to a class or kind of merchandise
19 that is the same or similar to and from the 20 same country as subject merchandise in-
21 volved in the proceeding.

 2       under that paragraph, including the highest such 3       rate or margin.

4               “(3) NO OBLIGATION TO MAKE CERTAIN ESTI-

 6       ministering authority uses an adverse inference
 7       under subsection (b)(1)(A) in selecting among facts
 8       otherwise available, the administering authority is 9       not required, for purposes of subsection (c) or for 10      any other purpose—

11              “(A) to estimate what the countervailable
 12              subsidy rate or dumping margin would have 13              been if the interested party found to have failed
 14              to cooperate under subsection (b)(1) had co-
 15              operated, or

16              “(B) to demonstrate that the countervail-
 17              able subsidy rate or dumping margin used by 18              the administering authority reflects the com-
 19              mercial reality of the interested party.

20              “(4) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in 21       this subsection shall be construed to limit the discre-
 22       tion of the administering authority to use any other
 23       countervailable subsidy rate or dumping margin not 24       specified in paragraph (1), subject to the corrobora-
 25       tion requirements of subsection (c).”.

1 SEC. 3. EVALUATION OF IMPACT ON DOMESTIC INDUSTRY

 12 economic factors that have a bearing
 13 on the state of the industry in the 14 United States, including—

15 “(aa) actual and potential
 16 decline in output, sales, market
 17 share, gross profits, operating 18 profits, net profits, ability to

 21 and utilization of capacity,

22 “(bb) factors affecting do-

9 the domestic like product, and

11 subtitle B, the magnitude of the 12 margin of dumping.

13 “(II) EVALUATION OF ECONOMIC
14 FACTORS IN CONTEXT.—

15 “(aa) IN GENERAL.—The 16 Commission shall evaluate all rel-

23 ANCE.—The fact that the per-
24 formance of the affected industry
25 has improved during the period

1 of investigation shall not preclude
2 a finding of material injury or 3 threat of material injury if the 4 improvement in performance has 5 been affected by imports of the 6 subject merchandise.

7 “(III) EFFECT OF RECESSION.—

8 In the case of an investigation initi-
9 ated by petition, if the National Bu-
10 reau of Economic Research or another
11 government agency responsible for 12 business cycle evaluation declares that 13 a recession began at any time during 14 the 3-year period preceding the date
15 on which the petition was filed, the 16 Commission may, if timely requested
17 by an interested party, extend its nor-18 mal period of investigation to ensure
19 that the period begins at least 365
20 days before the beginning of the re-
21 cession to ensure that the condition of 22 the affected industry can be appro-
23 priately assessed in relation to the
