

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 30

Supporting the designation of the year of 2015 as the International Year of Soils and supporting locally led soil conservation.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 26, 2015

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania (for himself, Ms. MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM of New Mexico, Mr. HARPER, and Mr. JONES) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Agriculture

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Supporting the designation of the year of 2015 as the International Year of Soils and supporting locally led soil conservation.

Whereas many of our international partners are designating 2015 as the International Year of Soils;

Whereas soil is vitally important for food security and essential ecosystem functions;

Whereas soil conservation efforts in the United States are often locally led;

Whereas 2015 also marks the 80th anniversary of the signing of the Soil Conservation Act on April 27, 1935;

Whereas soils, as the foundation for agricultural production, essential ecosystem functions, and food security, are key to sustaining life on Earth;

Whereas soils and the science of soils contribute to improved water quality, food safety and security, healthy ecosystems, and human health; and

Whereas soil, plant, animal, and human health are intricately linked: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) supports the designation of an International
4 Year of Soils;

5 (2) encourages the public to participate in ac-
6 tivities that celebrate the importance of soils to our
7 current and future well-being; and

8 (3) supports conservation of the Nation's soils,
9 through landowner participation in the Conservation
