

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 85

Condemning the senseless murder and wounding of 18 people, sons, daughters, fathers, mothers, uncles, aunts, cousins, students, and teachers, in Roseburg, Oregon on October 1, 2015.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 8, 2015

Mr. DEFAZIO (for himself, Mr. WALDEN, Mr. BLUMENAUER, Mr. SCHRADER, and Ms. BONAMICI) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Condemning the senseless murder and wounding of 18 people, sons, daughters, fathers, mothers, uncles, aunts, cousins, students, and teachers, in Roseburg, Oregon on October 1, 2015.

Whereas, on October 1, 2015, an armed gunman opened fire on the Umpqua Community College campus in Roseburg, Oregon, killing nine and wounding nine others;

Whereas acts of heroism and sacrifice for the safety and sake of others were demonstrated by deceased and surviving victims;

Whereas the first responders were swift and professional in their response to the initial call, thereby avoiding even more bloodshed; and

Whereas local, State, and Federal law enforcement, fire-fighter, and medical service professionals performed their duties with utmost skill and coordination; Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) offers condolences to the families and
 4 friends of those who were murdered and expresses
 5 its hope for the swift and complete recovery of those
 6 who were wounded;

7 (2) applauds the swift response and profes-
 8 sional conduct of the first responders to the scene,
 9 and the investigating officers following, including
 10 local, State, and Federal officials and others who of-
 11 fered their support and assistance; and

12 (3) remains committed to reducing the likeli-
 13 hood of this kind of event happening again.
