

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 196

Condemning the recent terrorist attacks in Tunis that resulted in the tragic loss of 21 innocent lives.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 13, 2015

Mr. SCHWEIKERT (for himself and Mr. HASTINGS) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Condemning the recent terrorist attacks in Tunis that resulted in the tragic loss of 21 innocent lives.

Whereas, on March 18, 2015, 5 armed terrorists raided the National Bardo Museum in Tunis, Tunisia, held visitors hostage, and murdered 19 tourists, including nationals from Japan, Italy, Colombia, Spain, Australia, Poland, and France, along with 2 Tunisian nationals;

Whereas at least 44 tourists were wounded in the attack and 2 victims later died from injuries sustained;

Whereas 2 of the terrorists in the attack, Yassine Laabidi and Hatem Khachnaoui, were killed by Tunisian police forces as they freed all hostages;

Whereas Yassine Laabidi and Hatem Khachnaoui allegedly trained at a jihadist camp in Libya in December 2014;

Whereas Tunisian authorities claimed to have killed the alleged leader of the attack, Lokman Abu Sakhra, on March 29, 2015;

Whereas multiple terror groups, such as the Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) and Ifrikiya al Alam, have claimed credit for the attack and praised the terrorists for targeting Westerners;

Whereas Tunisian officials allege that the militants were members of the Okba Ibn Nafaa Brigade, an extremist group that has claimed responsibility for multiple previous terrorist attacks in Tunisia;

Whereas the increase in anti-Westerner attacks in Northern Africa and the Middle East remains of great concern;

Whereas the United States and Tunisia share a longstanding and beneficial economic and political relationship spanning more than 200 years;

Whereas the United States and Tunisia share many core values, including respect for human rights and the rule of law;

Whereas Tunisia is the Arab world's most successful democracy after the Arab Spring and is an exemplary beacon of hope for other nations pursuing the establishment of a democratic system;

Whereas a vibrant, stable, and prosperous democracy in Tunisia is in the interest of the United States and would fuel both economic and democratic development throughout the region; and

Whereas the United States is committed to providing assistance to Tunisia in ongoing investigation efforts and supporting its quest for democracy: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) condemns the recent terrorist attacks in
3 Tunis that resulted in the tragic loss of 21 innocent
4 lives;

5 (2) extends its deepest sympathies to all those
6 affected by this tragedy;

7 (3) expresses solidarity with the people of Tuni-
8 sia and pays tribute to our shared values, ideals, and 9 liberties;

10 (4) encourages all Tunisians to unequivocally
11 stand together in opposition to extremism and vio-
12 lence of any kind;

13 (5) supports the efforts of the Government of 14 Tunisia to ensure that all of those individuals who 15 committed or supported these attacks are brought to 16 justice;

17 (6) reaffirms the commitment of the United 18 States to work with the Government of Tunisia to 19 fight against violent extremists; and 20 (7) affirms the United States commitment to 21 strengthening our bilateral relationship and engag-

22 ing in a strategic partnership with Tunisia.

○