OCTOBER 22, 2015

Committee discharged; considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Commemorating October 22, 2015, as the 50th anniversary of the enactment of the Highway Beautification Act of 1965.

Whereas, on October 22, 1965, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the Highway Beautification Act of 1965 (Public Law 89–285; 79 Stat. 1028), also known as “Lady Bird’s Bill”, “to protect the public investment in [public] highways, to promote the safety and recreational value of public travel, and to preserve natural beauty”;

Whereas, earlier in 1965, President Johnson convened a White House Conference on Natural Beauty that recommended, among other things, certain highway beautification actions;

Whereas, at the signing of the Highway Beautification Act of 1965 (Public Law 89–285; 79 Stat. 1028), President Johnson stated: “This bill does not represent everything that we wanted. It does not represent what we need. It does not represent what the national interest requires. But it is a first step, and there will be other steps. For though we must crawl before we walk, we are going to walk.”;

Whereas, since inception, the National Highway System has expanded to, as of October 2015, over 220,000 miles stretching across the United States; and

Whereas the national vision led by President Johnson and Lady Bird Johnson for a more beautiful highway system should be remembered and renewed: Now, therefore, be it
