RESOLUTION

Condemning the ongoing sexual violence against women and children from Yezidi, Christian, Shabak, Turkmen, and other religious communities by Islamic State of Iraq and Syria militants and urging the prosecution of the perpetrators and those complicit in these crimes.

Whereas the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) has publicly and systematically targeted communities on the basis of their religious identities, including Yezidis, Christians, Shi'a Muslims, Shabaks, Turkmens, and Kaka'i, in a campaign of violence that includes summary executions, beheadings, torture, arbitrary detainment, forced displacement, rape and sexual violence, and enslavement;

Whereas enslavement and sexual violence against women is a widespread practice among ISIS militants, who have, according to the Yezidi Affairs Directory, captured and enslaved as many as 5,500 Yezidis, including as many as 3,000 women, since August 2014;

Whereas ISIS has established a formal slave trade in which women and girls as young as 5 years old are systematically abducted, transported, categorized according to physical traits and perceived value, and traded among ISIS militants or sold for as little as $10;

Whereas the Research and Fatwa Department of ISIS has issued guidelines and directions for the enslavement of Yezidi women and children and has justified the actions on the basis of religious teachings;

Whereas the New York Times reported that “the Islamic State has developed a detailed bureaucracy of sex slavery, including sales contracts notarized by the ISIS-run Islamic courts”;

Whereas according to various reports, including testimony before Congress by Khidher Domle, a Yezidi activist and Director of the Media Department at the University of Dohuk, the enslavement and sexual violence used against Yezidi women and children by ISIS militants in their attack on Mount Sinjar was premeditated;

Whereas ISIS has initiated the mass killing of Yezidi men and boys, the sexual violence and enslavement of Yezidi women and children, and the forced displacement of Christians and other religious communities;

Whereas the threat and reach of ISIS extends beyond Iraq and Syria into the rest of the world, as demonstrated by ISIS-affiliated attacks and recruitment of foreign fighters from the United States, Europe, Central Asia, and Africa;

Whereas, according to testimony presented before the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives on September 29, 2015, it is possible that one of the ISIS militants involved in the sexual slavery of Yezidi women and children is a United States citizen; and

Whereas the United States Government should investigate and urge prosecution of American citizens who are perpetrators of or complicit in such crimes: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) condemns the ongoing sexual violence
3 against women and children from Yezidi, Christian,
4 Shabak, Turkmen, and other religious communities
5 by Islamic State of Iraq and Syria militants;

6 (2) calls on the Attorney General to commence
7 the investigation and prosecution of any United 8 States citizens alleged to be perpetrators of or 9 complicit in these crimes and to report back to Con-
10 gress what steps are being taken to investigate and 11 urge the prosecution of those involved;

12 (3) calls on the Government of Iraq and the 13 governments of other countries to identify individual
14 perpetrators and individuals involved in these crimes

1 and take appropriate measures to arrest and urge
2 the prosecution of those individuals; and

3 (4) defines “complicit”, for purposes of this res-
4 olution, as having knowingly and willingly taken ac-
5 tions which have directly supported, promoted, en-
6 abled, aided, abetted, or encouraged crimes involving 7 sexual violence against women and children from 8 Yezidi, Christian, Shabak, Turkmen, or other reli-
9 gious communities by Islamic State of Iraq and 10 Syria militants, including actively working to deny,
11 cover up, or alter evidence of such crimes.
