1ST SESSION

S. RES. 91

Designating March 2, 2015, as “Read Across America Day”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 26, 2015

Ms. COLLINS (for herself, Mr. REED, and Mr. DURBIN) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Designating March 2, 2015, as “Read Across America Day”.

Whereas reading is a basic requirement for quality education and professional success, and is a source of pleasure throughout life;

Whereas the people of the United States must be able to read if the United States is to remain competitive in the global economy;

Whereas Congress has placed great emphasis on reading intervention and providing additional resources for reading assistance, including through the programs authorized by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 6301 et seq.) and through annual appropriations for library and literacy programs; and

Whereas more than 50 national organizations concerned about reading and education have joined with the National Education Association to designate March 2, the anniversary of the birth of Theodor Geisel (also known as “Dr. Seuss”), as a day to celebrate reading: Now, therefore, be it
