IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 16, 2017

Ms. BASS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce, and in addition to the Committees on Financial Services, and Ways and Means, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To increase purchasing power, strengthen economic recovery, and restore fairness in financing higher education in the United States through student loan forgiveness, caps on interest rates on Federal student loans, and refinancing opportunities for private borrowers, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Student Loan Fairness
3 Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) A well-educated citizenry is critical to our
7 Nation’s ability to compete in the global economy.

8 (2) The Federal Government has a vested interest
9 in ensuring access to higher education.

10 (3) Higher education should be viewed as a
11 public good benefitting our country rather than as a
12 commodity solely benefitting individual students.

13 (4) Recently, total outstanding student loan
14 debt officially surpassed total credit card debt in the 15 United States in 2015, and is on track to exceed 16 $1,230,000,000,000.

17 (5) Excessive student loan debt is impeding economic 18 growth in the United States. Faced with excessive
19 repayment burdens, many individuals are unable
20 to start businesses, invest, or buy homes. Relieving
21 student loan debt would give these individuals
22 greater control over their earnings and would increase
23 entrepreneurship and demand for goods and 24 services.

25 (6) Because of soaring tuition costs, students
26 often have no choice but to amass significant debt

1 to obtain an education that is widely considered a
2 prerequisite for earning a living wage.

3 (7) Amidst rising tuition rates and stagnant
4 grant funding, many students are forced to supple-
5 ment Federal loans with private loans, which fre-
6 quently feature higher interest rates with fewer con-
7 sumer protections.

8 (8) A borrower who experiences an extended
9 hardship for whatever reason, or a borrower who ex-
10 periences a series of separate hardships over a
11 longer period of time, will often have no choice but 12 to default on his or her private student loans. Op-
13 portunities to put such private loans into forbear-
14 ance are limited.

15 (9) During the period of forbearance on private 16 student loans, interest continues to accrue and is 17 capitalized, and once the borrower comes out of for-
18 bearance, he or she owes significantly more on the 19 principal of the loan than before the hardship period
20 began.

21 SEC. 3. 10/10 LOAN REPAYMENT AND FORGIVENESS.

22 Part G of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 23 1965 is amended by adding at the end the following:

24 “SEC. 493E. 10/10 LOAN REPAYMENT AND FORGIVENESS.

21 total amount of eligible loans, and such other proce-
22 dures as are necessary to effectively implement 10/
23 10 Loan Repayment under this subsection.

24 “(4) SPECIAL RULE FOR MARRIED BORROWERS
25 FILING SEPARATELY.—In the case of a married bor-

1 rower who files a separate Federal income tax re-
2 turn, the Secretary shall calculate the amount of the 8 provide loan forgiveness under paragraph (1), the 9 Secretary is authorized to carry out a program—
