7   MENTS.—

8                 “(A) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an indi-
9   vidual, for taxable years beginning after 2017
10   the rate table otherwise in effect under this sec-
11   tion for any taxable year (determined after the 12   application of paragraph (1)) shall be further
13   adjusted as provided in subparagraph (B).

14                 “(B) METHOD OF MAKING REGIONAL AD-
15   JUSTMENT.—The rate table otherwise in effect
16   under this section with respect to any individual

18   lows:

19                 “(i) The minimum and maximum dol-
20   lar amounts otherwise in effect for each
21   rate bracket shall be multiplied by the ap-22   plicable multiplier (for the calendar year in 23   which the taxable year begins) which ap-
24   plies to the statistical area in which the in-25   dividual’s primary place of abode during 26   the taxable year is located.

1                     “(ii) The rate applicable to any rate
2                     bracket (as adjusted by clause (i)) shall 3                     not be changed.

4                     “(iii) The amount setting forth the 5                     tax shall be adjusted to the extent nec-
6                     essary to reflect the adjustments in the 7                     rate brackets.

8                     If any amount determined under clause (i) is 9                     not a multiple of $50, such amount shall be 10                  rounded to the nearest multiple of $50.

11                  “(10) DETERMINATION OF MULTIPLIERS.—

12                  “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than De-
13                  cember 15 of each calendar year, the Secretary
14                  shall prescribe an applicable multiplier for each 15                  statistical area of the United States which shall 16                  apply to taxable years beginning during the suc-
17                  ceeding calendar year.

18                  “(B) DETERMINATION OF MULTIPLIERS.—

19                  “(i) For each statistical area where 20                  the cost-of-living differential for any cal-
21                  endar year is greater than 125 percent, the 22                  applicable multiplier for such calendar year
23                  is 90 percent of such differential.

24                  “(ii) For each statistical area where
25                  the cost-of-living differential for any cal-

1           endar year exceeds 97 percent but does not 2           exceed 125 percent, the applicable multi-
3           plier for such calendar year is 1.05.

4           “(iii) For each statistical area not de-
5           scribed in clause (i) or (ii), the applicable
6           multiplier is the cost-of-living differential
7           for the calendar year.

8           “(C) COST-OF-LIVING DIFFERENTIAL.—
9           The cost-of-living differential for any statistical 10          area for any calendar year is the percentage de-
11          termined by dividing—

12           “(i) the cost-of-living for such area for 13           the preceding calendar year; by

14           “(ii) the average cost-of-living for the 16          year.

18           “(i) IN GENERAL.—For calendar year
19          2017 and each calendar year thereafter,
20          the Secretary of Labor shall determine and 21          publish a cost-of-living index for each sta-
22          tistical area.

23           “(ii) METHODOLOGY.—The cost-of-liv-
24          ing index determined under clause (i) for 25          any statistical area for any calendar year

1           shall be based on average market prices for 2           the area for the 12-month period ending
3           on August 31 of such calendar year. The 4           market prices taken into account under the 5           preceding sentence shall be selected and 6           used under the same methodology as is 7           used by the Secretary of Labor in devel-
8           oping the Consumer Price Index for All
9           Urban Consumers.

10          “(E) STATISTICAL AREA.—For purposes of 11           this subsection the term ‘statistical area’
12           means—

14               as defined by the Secretary of Commerce, 15               and

17               within a metropolitan statistical area as so
18               defined.

19          “(11) AREAS OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES.—
20           The area applicable multiplier for any area outside
21           the United States shall be 1.”.

22          (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by
