AN ACT

To require the President to develop a national strategy to combat the financial networks of transnational organized criminals, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “National Strategy for 3 Combating the Financing of Transnational Criminal Or-4 ganizations Act”.

5 SEC. 2. NATIONAL STRATEGY.

6 (a) IN GENERAL.—The President, acting through the 7 Secretary of the Treasury, shall, in consultation with the 8 Attorney General, the Secretary of State, the Secretary
9 of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intel-
10 ligence, the Secretary of Defense, the Director of the Fi-
11 nancial Crimes Enforcement Network, the Director of the 12 United States Secret Service, the Director of the Federal 13 Bureau of Investigation, the Administrator of the Drug
14 Enforcement Administration, the Commissioner of Cus-
15 toms and Border Protection, the Director of the Office
16 of National Drug Control Policy, and the Federal func-
17 tional regulators, develop a national strategy to combat
18 the financial networks of transnational organized crimi-
19 nals.

20 (b) TRANSMITTAL TO CONGRESS.—

21 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year after 22 the enactment of this Act, the President shall sub-23 mit to the appropriate Congressional committees and 24 make available to the relevant government agencies
25 as defined in subsection (a), a comprehensive na-
26 tional strategy in accordance with subsection (a).

1                         (2) UPDATES.—After the initial submission of 2                         the national strategy under paragraph (1), the 3                         President shall, not less often than every 2 years, 4                         update the national strategy and submit the updated
5                         strategy to the appropriate Congressional commit-6                         tees.

7                         (c) SEPARATE PRESENTATION OF CLASSIFIED MA-
8                         TERIAL.—Any part of the national strategy that involves 9                         information that is properly classified under criteria estab-
10                         lished by the President shall be submitted to Congress sep-11                         arately in a classified annex and, if requested by the chair-
12                         man or ranking member of one of the appropriate Con-13                         gressional committees, as a briefing at an appropriate level 14                         of security.

15 SEC. 3. CONTENTS OF NATIONAL STRATEGY.

16                         The national strategy described in section 2 shall con-17                         tain the following:

18                         (1) THREATS.—An identification and assess-19                         ment of the most significant current transnational 20                         organized crime threats posed to the national secu-
21                         rity of the United States or to the U.S. and inter-22                         national financial system, including drug and human 23                         trafficking organizations, cyber criminals,
24                         kleptocrats, and other relevant state and non-state 25                         entities, including those threats identified in the

1 President’s “Strategy to Combat Transnational Or-2 ganized Crime” (published July 2011).

3 (2) ILLICIT FINANCE.—(A) An identification of 4 individuals, entities, and networks (including ter-5 rrorist organizations, if any) that provide financial 6 support or financial facilitation to transnational or-7 ganized crime groups, and an assessment of the 8 scope and role of those providing financial support
9 to transnational organized crime groups.

10 (B) An assessment of methods by which 11 transnational organized crime groups launder illicit 12 proceeds, including money laundering using real es-
13 tate and other tangible goods such as art and antiq-
14 uities, trade-based money laundering, bulk cash
15 smuggling, exploitation of shell companies, and mis-
16 use of digital currencies and other cyber tech-17 nologies, as well as an assessment of the risk to the 18 financial system of the United States of such meth-
19 ods.

20 (3) GOALS, OBJECTIVES, PRIORITIES, AND AC-
21 TIONS.—(A) A comprehensive, research-based dis-
22 cussion of short-term and long-term goals, objec-
23 tives, priorities, and actions, listed for each depart-24 ment and agency described under section 2(a), for

1 combating the financing of transnational organized
2 crime groups and their facilitators.

3 (B) A description of how the strategy is inte-
4 grated into, and supports, the national security
5 strategy, drug control strategy, and counterterrorism
6 strategy of the United States.

7 (4) REVIEWS AND PROPOSED CHANGES.—A re-
8 view of current efforts to combat the financing or fi-
9 nancial facilitation of transnational organized crime,
10 including efforts to detect, deter, disrupt, and pros-11 ecute transnational organized crime groups and their 12 supporters, and, if appropriate, proposed changes to 13 any law or regulation determined to be appropriate 14 to ensure that the United States pursues coordi-
15 nated and effective efforts within the jurisdiction of 16 the United States, including efforts or actions that 17 are being taken or can be taken by financial institu-
18 tions, efforts in cooperation with international part-
19 ners of the United States, and efforts that build 20 partnerships and global capacity to combat
21 transnational organized crime.

22 SEC. 4. DEFINITIONS.

23 In this Act:

1                             (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
2                             TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-3                             mittees” means—

4                                 (A) the Committee on Financial Services,
5                             the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the Com-
6                             mittee on Armed Services, the Committee on 7                             the Judiciary, the Committee on Homeland Se-8                             curity, and the Permanent Select Committee on 9                             Intelligence of the House of Representatives; 10                             and

11                                 (B) the Committee on Banking, Housing, 12                             and Urban Affairs, the Committee on Foreign 13                             Relations, the Committee on Armed Services,
14                             the Committee on the Judiciary, the Committee
15                             on Homeland Security and Governmental Af-
16                             fairs, and the Select Committee on Intelligence
17                             of the Senate.

18                             (2) FEDERAL FUNCTIONAL REGULATOR.—The 19                             term “Federal functional regulator” has the mean-
20                             ing given that term in section 509 of the Gramm-
21                             Leach-Biley Act (15 U.S.C. 6809).

22                             (3) TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME.—The 23                             term “transnational organized crime” refers to those 24                             self-perpetuating associations of individuals who op-25                             erate transnationally for the purpose of obtaining

1 power, influence, monetary or commercial gains,
2 wholly or in part by illegal means, while—
3 (A) protecting their activities through a 4 pattern of corruption or violence; or 5 (B) while protecting their illegal activities
6 through a transnational organizational struc-
7 ture and the exploitation of transnational com-
8 merce or communication mechanisms.

Passed the House of Representatives March 6, 2018.
