15 SEC. 103. SECURING THE ROLE OF AMERICAN FARMERS IN
16 THE FOOD FOR PEACE PROGRAM.

17 The Food for Peace Act is further amended—

18 (1) by redesignating section 203 (7 U.S.C.

23 so as to appear before section 207; and

24 (3) by inserting after section 202 (7 U.S.C.
25 1722) the following new section:

1 “SEC. 203. SECURING THE ROLE OF AMERICAN FARMERS IN
2 THE FOOD FOR PEACE PROGRAM.

3 “(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

4 “(1) American farmers have played a critical
5 role in the Food for Peace Program since Congress
6 established such program in 1954 to reduce hunger
7 and poverty overseas through the donation of sur-
8 plus government-held agricultural commodities that 9 had accumulated under Department of Agriculture
10 commodity price support programs.

11 “(2) Through the generosity of the American
12 people, and with the help of American farmers—

13 “(A) more than 4,000,000,000 people have 14 received life-saving food assistance; and

15 “(B) more than 150 countries have bene-
16 fitted from United States-supported food secu-
17 rity programs.

18 “(3) Despite the cessation of the commodity
19 price support programs and the drawdown of sur-
20 plus stocks that occasioned the creation of the Food
21 for Peace Program in 1954, American farmers con-
22 tinue to play a critical role in United States inter-
23 national food assistance programs, particularly as a
24 result of their innovation, expertise, and unmatched
25 capacity to produce high-quality agricultural com-

1 modities that are critical to meeting growing global 2 food needs.

3 “(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
4 gress that modernizing the Food for Peace Program, in-5 cluding through the introduction of more flexible ap-
6 proaches to meeting food needs overseas, does not negate
7 the need and desire for American farmers to continue to 8 play an integral role in United States international food
9 assistance and agricultural development programs over-
10 seas.”.
