A BILL

To amend title 31, United States Code, to require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint and issue quarter dollars in commemoration of the Nineteenth Amendment, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Women’s History and 5       Nineteenth Amendment Centennial Quarter Dollar Coin
6       Program Act”.

7       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

8       Congress finds the following:

1           (1) The tireless and passionate efforts of the 2           suffragists, their supporters, and other stakeholders
3           contributed to the movement to grant and protect 4           the right of all women to vote.

5           (2) On August 26, 1920, after a long campaign
6           by suffragists across the country, the United States
7           Constitution was amended with the 19th Amend-
8           ment, granting women the right to vote.

9           (3) On June 24, 1924, all Native Americans
10          were granted citizenship, and by extension the right
11          to vote.

12          (4) In 1948, the legal victories of Native Amer-
13          ican veterans granted protections for the right of all 14          Native men and women to vote.

15          (5) On June 27, 1952, the Immigration and 16          Nationality Act of 1952 was enacted, granting citi-
17          zenship to all individuals of Asian descent, and by 18          extension, the right to vote.

19          (6) Enactment of the Voting Rights Act of 20          1965 on August 6, 1965, granted Black women pro-
21          tections to overcome the legal barriers that pre-22          vented many from exercising their right to vote even 23          though all Blacks had been granted citizenship in 24          1868 with ratification of the 14th Amendment.

1           (7) On August 6, 1975, the amendments to the 2           reauthorization of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 re-
3           moved language barriers to mitigate discrimination
4           against Hispanic, Asian, and Native American vot-
5           ers.

6           (8) It was not until March 29, 1961, when the 7           23rd Amendment passed that women in Washington,
8           DC, were allowed to vote in all elections.

9           (9) Women’s history and the movement for 10          women’s rights that the suffragists began extends 11          beyond ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment.

12          (10) August 26, 2020, marks the centennial of 13          the day that women were granted the right to vote
14          in America.
