

115TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 6067

To establish criminal penalties and civil remedies for doping fraud violations at major international competitions.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 12, 2018

Ms. JACKSON LEE (for herself, Mr. BURGESS, and Ms. MOORE) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To establish criminal penalties and civil remedies for doping fraud violations at major international competitions.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Rodchenkov Anti-5 Doping Act of 2018”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The use of illegal performance-enhancing 9 drugs (“doping fraud”) in major international sport-
10 ing competitions damages the integrity of sports,

1 and often begets other illegal activity, including bribery
2 and money laundering.

3 (2) Doping fraud in major international competitions
4 cheats clean athletes, including clean United States athletes, and sponsoring corporations,
5 including United States corporations, which often have anti-doping provisions in their sponsorship contracts.

6 (3) The United States is the single largest sovereign contributor to the World Anti-Doping Agency 7 (“WADA”), and thus doping fraud in major international competitions also effectively defrauds the 8 United States.

9 (4) Every major international sporting organization has condemned doping fraud, as has international law enforcement agencies such as Interpol,
10 WADA, and the United Nations. Moreover, a number of nations, including Germany, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Italy, Sweden, Switzerland, and Spain, have embraced criminal sanctions for 11 doping fraud violations. Thus, action by the United States to enhance the international community’s 12 fight to protect clean athletes is fully consistent with 13 international law.

1 (5) State-sponsored-doping systems have been
2 revealed, including in Russia by Dr. Grigory
3 Rodchenkov, and international federations and 4 WADA lack the tools to effectively deter such sys-
5 tems, which severely magnify the harms to clean
6 athletes, including United States athletes, and spon-
7 soring corporations, including United States cor-
8 porations.

9 (6) Individuals who act as whistleblowers, in-
10 cluding Dr. Grigory Rodchenkov, and make disclo-11 sures about doping fraud described above, serve the 12 public interest by assisting in the elimination of 13 fraud, unveiling of bribery and money laundering,
14 and other corrupt practices and should not suffer
15 adverse consequences or retaliation.

16 (7) Protecting whistleblowers who disclose con-
17 duct which falls within the purview of this Act is a 18 major step toward fair sport.

19 (8) Criminal proscriptions are necessary to 20 deter doping fraud, even when such conduct occurs
21 outside United States territory at major inter-22 national competitions, as such conduct has and is in-23 tended to have substantial effect on the United 24 States, United States citizens, and United States
25 sponsoring corporations.

1 (9) Athletes who were victimized by doping
2 fraud and whistleblowers have heretofore enjoyed 3 few remedies against doped athletes, including when 4 doping fraud was the cause for them not winning 5 medals or placing at the top of various competitions,
6 or depriving them of prize monies and financial 7 awards for medals or top placement, such that the 8 creation of a private right of action is wholly appro-
9 priate.

10 (10) Given that the science of doping detection
11 is constantly improving—such that newly devised
12 technologies have established new detection methods
13 even for past acts of doping fraud—an elongated
14 statute of limitations is appropriate.

15 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.
