^{115TH CONGRESS} 2D SESSION H.R.6692

To require the Secretary of Homeland Security to use alternatives to detention for certain vulnerable immigrant populations, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

August 31, 2018

Mr. BROWN of Maryland (for himself and Mrs. WATSON COLEMAN) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

- To require the Secretary of Homeland Security to use alternatives to detention for certain vulnerable immigrant populations, and for other purposes.
 - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Alternatives to Deten-

5 tion Act of 2018".

6 SEC. 2. ALTERNATIVES TO DETAINING UNDOCUMENTED IN-

- 7 DIVIDUALS.
- 8 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Homeland Secu-9 rity shall establish programs that provide alternatives to detaining individuals under the immigration laws (as de-1 2 fined in section 101(a)(17) of the Immigration and Na-3 tionality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(17))), whether such deten-4 tion is pending a decision on whether the individual is to be removed from the United States or after the issuance 5 6 of a removal order. The programs shall provide for a con-7 tinuum of supervision mechanisms and options, including 8 community-based supervision and community support. 9 The Secretary may contract with nongovernmental com-10 munity-based organizations to provide services under such programs, which may include case management services, 11 12 appearance assistance services, and screenings of individuals who have been detained. 13

14 (b) DETERMINATION OF VULNERABLE POPULATION15 OR CAREGIVER STATUS REQUIRED.—

16 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 48 hours 17 after taking an individual described in subsection (a) 18 into custody, the Secretary or the immigration judge 19 shall make a determination whether an individual 20 may participate in an alternatives to detention pro-21 gram and determine the appropriate level of super-22 vision.

23 (2) SPECIAL RULE.—If the individual is mem24 ber of a vulnerable population described in sub25 section (c), is a parent of a child under 18 years of

| 1 | age, or is dependent caregiver or a family caregiver, |
|----|---|
| 2 | the individual may not be detained and must be |
| 3 | placed in an alternatives to detention program that |
| 4 | is a community-based supervision program. |
| 5 | (3) EXCEPTIONS.—Alternative to detention pro- |
| 6 | grams shall not be used— |
| 7 | (A) for individuals detained under section |
| 8 | 236A of the Immigration and Nationality Act |
| 9 | (8 U.S.C. 1226a); or |
| 10 | (B) when release on bond or recognizance |
| 11 | is determined to be a sufficient measure to en- |
| 12 | sure appearances at immigration proceedings |
| 13 | and public safety. |
| 14 | (c) VULNERABLE POPULATION.—In determining |
| 15 | whether to place a detainee in an alternatives to detention |
| 16 | program, the Secretary shall consider whether the de- |
| 17 | tainee— |
| 18 | (1) is an asylum seeker or victim of torture or |
| 19 | trafficking; |
| 20 | (2) has special religious, cultural, or spiritual |
| 21 | considerations; |
| 22 | (3) is pregnant or nursing; |
| 23 | (4) is under 21 years of age or older than 60 |
| 24 | years of age; |
