

115TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 6865

To direct the Comptroller General of the United States to conduct certain studies, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 24, 2018

Mr. KUSTOFF of Tennessee introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

---

A BILL

To direct the Comptroller General of the United States to conduct certain studies, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Modernizing Illicit Fi-
5 nancial Accountability and Reporting Act”.

6 SEC. 2. STUDIES AND REPORTS.

7       (a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP.—Not later than 2
8 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the Com-
9 troller General of the United States shall conduct a study
10 and submit to the Congress a report—

1                 (1) evaluating the effectiveness of the collection
2                 of beneficial ownership information under the final
3                 rule of the Department of the Treasury entitled
4                 “Customer Due Diligence Requirements for Finan-
5                 cial Institutions” (“CDD rule”) and published May 6                 11, 2016 (81 Fed. Reg. 29397), including—

7                         (A) whether law enforcement agencies have 8                 had timely access to the information;

9                         (B) the utility of such information in law
10                 enforcement investigations or prosecutions;

11                         (C) an analysis of the reporting burden
12                 placed on financial institutions versus the utility
13                 of such information being made available to law
14                 enforcement; and

15                         (D) whether further legislation is required
16                 to reduce regulatory burdens or increase the 17                 utility and timely access of such information to 18                 law enforcement;

19                         (2) assessing the effectiveness of incorporation
20                 practices implemented under the CDD rule.

21                 (b) COMPREHENSIVE COST-BENEFIT ANALYSIS.—
22                 Not later than 2 years after the date of enactment of this 23                 Act, the Comptroller General of the United States shall 24                 conduct a study and submit to the Congress a report—

1                         (1) providing a comprehensive quantitative and
2                         qualitative estimate of the annualized costs to the 3                         private sector to comply with the statutory and regu-
4                         latory requirements of the Bank Secrecy Act and re-
5                         lated anti-money laundering laws and regulations;

6                         (2) providing a comprehensive qualitative and
7                         quantitative analysis of the effectiveness of the cur-
8                         rent anti-money laundering and counter terrorist fi-
9                         nancing framework in preventing, detecting, and 10                         prosecuting terrorist and illicit financing;

11                         (3) providing a comprehensive qualitative and
12                         quantitative analysis of the benefits and costs to 13                         both the private sector and the Government of the 14                         private sector's compliance with the statutory and 15                         regulatory requirements of the Bank Secrecy Act
16                         and related anti-money laundering laws and regula-17                         tions; and

18                         (4) examining the costs borne and effect on ac-
19                         cess to financial services for consumers and cus-
20                         tomers as a result of financial institutions compli-
21                         ance with the statutory and regulatory requirements
22                         of the Bank Secrecy Act and related anti-money
23                         laundering laws and regulations.

24                         SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

25                         For purposes of this Act:

1                             (1) BANK SECRECY ACT.—The term “Bank Se-
2                             crecy Act” means—

3                                 (A) section 21 of the Federal Deposit In-
4                             surance Act;

5                                 (B) chapter 2 of title I of Public Law 91-6                             508; and

7                                 (C) subchapter II of chapter 53 of title 31,
8                             United States Code.

9                             (2) FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.—The term “fi-
10                             nancial institution” has the meaning given that term
11                             under section 5312 of title 31, United States Code.

