

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 207

Expressing the continued support of the House of Representatives for the Good Friday Agreement (the Belfast Agreement).

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 17, 2017

Mr. KEATING (for himself, Mr. NEAL, Mr. CROWLEY, Mr. MEEKS, Mr. BRENDAN F. BOYLE of Pennsylvania, Mr. KING of New York, and Mr. CONNOLLY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Expressing the continued support of the House of Representatives for the Good Friday Agreement (the Belfast Agreement).

Whereas, on April 10, 1998, the Good Friday Agreement reached by the Government of Ireland, the Government of the United Kingdom, and the political party leaders of Northern Ireland provided for the devolution of government from the United Kingdom to local institutions in Northern Ireland, created the democratically elected Northern Ireland Assembly and democratically accountable Executive Committee;

Whereas the people of both Northern Ireland and Ireland, in a referendum on May 22, 1998, voted overwhelmingly in favor of the Good Friday Agreement, and the accord went into effect on December 2, 1999;

Whereas the completion of the Good Friday Agreement marked a historic political development that paved the way for future relations within Northern Ireland, between Ireland and Northern Ireland, and between Ireland and Britain, and provided hope for a peaceful resolution of a longstanding conflict;

Whereas the Good Friday Agreement allows for the peaceful and democratic expression of political differences and the protection and vindication of the human rights of all;

Whereas the United States Government through administrations and congressional leadership of both parties has consistently reaffirmed its commitment, including through support for the International Fund for Ireland and the appointment of successive Peace Envoys, to assist in building a strong society, vibrant economy, and enduring peace in Northern Ireland;

Whereas continued United States engagement in the Northern Ireland peace process is vital to safeguarding the gains made since the Good Friday Agreement;

Whereas the 2016 referendum in Britain to leave the European Union has heightened concerns about the future of the Good Friday Agreement and sustained peace in Northern Ireland;

Whereas the power-sharing Executive and Assembly have a prominent role to play in the wake of the British referendum and in reaching decisions about how Britain's exit from the European Union will be implemented and affect Northern Ireland;

Whereas the free flow of persons across open borders between Ireland and Britain has been a fundamental part of promoting peace and unity throughout the implementation of the Good Friday Agreement; and

Whereas divisions still remain within Northern Ireland, its communities, and among its political parties, which underscores the importance of upholding the letter and spirit of the Good Friday Agreement: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) reaffirms support for the Good Friday
3 Agreement as the essential framework for the con-
4 tinued advancement of partnership, reconciliation,
5 tolerance, and mutual trust, in Northern Ireland;
6 and

7 (2) encourages the Irish and British Govern-
8 ments, as well as the Northern Ireland political par-
9 ties, to continue to uphold and respect the provisions
10 of the Good Friday Agreement throughout the forth-
11 coming Brexit negotiations and to ensure that future
12 European Union-United Kingdom and Ireland-
13 United Kingdom negotiations give priority attention
14 to protecting the gains of the peace process in 15 Northern Ireland.
