A BILL

To increase the role of the financial industry in combating human trafficking.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “End Banking for 5 Human Traffickers Act of 2017”.

6 SEC. 2. COORDINATION OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING ISSUES

7 BY THE OFFICE OF TERRORISM AND FINAN-
8 CIAL INTELLIGENCE.

9 (a) FUNCTIONS.—Section 312(a)(4) of title 31,
10 United States Code, is amended—

1           (1) by redesignating subparagraphs (E), (F),
2           and (G) as subparagraphs (F), (G), and (H), respec-
3           tively; and

4           (2) by inserting after subparagraph (D) the fol-
5           lowing:

6                     “(E) combating illicit financing relating to 7                     human trafficking;”.

8           (b) INTERAGENCY COORDINATION.—Section 312(a)
9           of such title is amended by adding at the end the fol-
10          lowing:

11                   “(8) INTERAGENCY COORDINATION.—The Sec-
12                   retary of the Treasury, after consultation with the 13                   Undersecretary for Terrorism and Financial Crimes, 14                   shall designate an office within the OTFI that shall 15                   coordinate efforts to combat the illicit financing of 16                   human trafficking with—

17                             “(A) other offices of the Department of the 18                   Treasury;

19                             “(B) other Federal agencies, including—

20                                     “(i) the Office to Monitor and Combat
21                                     Trafficking in Persons of the Department
22                                     of State; and

23                                     “(ii) the Interagency Task Force to 24                                     Monitor and Combat Trafficking;

1                   “(C) State and local law enforcement agen-
2                   cies; and

3                   “(D) foreign governments.”.

4 SEC. 3. STRENGTHENING THE ROLE OF ANTI-MONEY LAUN-
5 DERING AND OTHER FINANCIAL TOOLS IN 6 COMBATING HUMAN TRAFFICKING.

7           (a) INTERAGENCY TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATIONS
8 TARGETING MONEY LAUNDERING RELATED TO HUMAN
9 TRAFFICKING.—

10           (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 270 days
11 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 12 Interagency Task Force to Monitor and Combat
13 Trafficking shall submit to the Committee on Bank-
14 ing, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate, the 15 Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate, the Com-
16 mittee on Financial Services of the House of Rep-
17 resentatives, the Committee on the Judiciary of the 18 House of Representatives, the Secretary of the 19 Treasury, and each appropriate Federal banking
20 agency—

21           (A) an analysis of anti-money laundering
22 efforts of the United States Government and 23 United States financial institutions related to 24 human trafficking; and

1           (B) appropriate legislative, administrative,
2           and other recommendations to strengthen ef-
3           forts against money laundering relating to
4           human trafficking.

5           (2) REQUIRED RECOMMENDATIONS.—The rec-
6           ommendations under paragraph (1) shall include—

7                   (A) best practices based on successful anti-8                   human trafficking programs currently in place
9                   at financial institutions that are suitable for 10                  broader adoption;

11                   (B) stakeholder feedback on policy pro-
12                   posals derived from the analysis conducted by 13                   the task force referred to in paragraph (1) that 14                   would enhance the efforts and programs of fi-
15                   nancial institutions to detect and deter money
16                   laundering related to human trafficking, includ-
17                   ing any recommended changes to internal poli-
18                   cies, procedures, and controls related to human 19                   trafficking;

20                   (C) any recommended changes to training
21                   programs at financial institutions to better
22                   equip employees to deter and detect money
23                   laundering related to human trafficking; and

24                   (D) any recommended changes to expand
25                   human trafficking-related information sharing

1 among financial institutions and between such 2 financial institutions, appropriate law enforce-
3 ment agencies, and appropriate Federal agen-
4 cies.

5 (b) ADDITIONAL REPORTING REQUIREMENT.—Sec-
6 tion 105(d)(7) of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act
7 of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7103(d)(7)) is amended—

8 (1) in the matter preceding subparagraph (A)—

9 (A) by inserting “the Committee on Finan-
10 cial Services,” after “the Committee on Foreign 11 Affairs”; and

12 (B) by inserting “the Committee on Bank-
13 ing, Housing, and Urban Affairs” after “the 14 Committee on Foreign Relations,”;

15 (2) in subparagraph (Q)(vii), by striking “;
16 and” and inserting a semicolon;

17 (3) in subparagraph (R), by striking the period
18 at the end and inserting “; and”; and

19 (4) by adding at the end the following:

20 “(S) the efforts of the United States to 21 eliminate money laundering related to human 22 trafficking and the number of investigations,
23 arrests, indictments, and convictions in money
24 laundering cases with a nexus to human traf-
25 ficking.”.

1           (c) REQUIRED REVIEW OF PROCEDURES.—Not later
2 than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act,
3 the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council,
4 in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, the pri-
5 vate sector, and appropriate law enforcement agencies, 6 shall—

7           (1) review and enhance training and examina-
8 tions procedures to improve the surveillance capabili-
9 ties of anti-money laundering, and countering the fi-
10 nancing of terrorism programs to detect human traf-
11 ficking-related financial transactions;

12           (2) review and enhance procedures for referring 13 potential human trafficking cases to the appropriate 14 law enforcement agency; and

15           (3) determine, as appropriate, whether require-16 ments for financial institutions and covered financial 17 institutions are sufficient to detect and deter money
18 laundering related to human trafficking.
