To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the women in the United States who joined the workforce during World War II, providing the vehicles, weaponry, and ammunition to win the war, that were referred to as “Rosie the Riveter”, in recognition of their contributions to the United States and the inspiration they have provided to ensuing generations.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 6, 2018

Mr. CASEY (for himself and Ms. COLLINS) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs

A BILL

To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the women in the United States who joined the workforce during World War II, providing the vehicles, weaponry, and ammunition to win the war, that were referred to as “Rosie the Riveter”, in recognition of their contributions to the United States and the inspiration they have provided to ensuing generations.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Rosie the Riveter Con-
3 gressional Gold Medal Act of 2018”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) Over 70 years ago there was a call to ac-
7 tion, a demand for workers to fill the vacancies left
8 by the men who went to fight in the war.

9 (2) Six million women answered the call then,
10 entering the workforce during World War II and 11 providing the weaponry and ammunition to end the 12 war.

13 (3) These women left their homes to work or
14 volunteer full-time in factories, farms, shipyards, air-
15 plane factories, banks, and other institutions in sup-
16 port of the military overseas.

17 (4) They worked with the United Service Orga-
18 nizations and the American Red Cross, drove trucks,
19 riveted airplane parts, collected critical materials,
20 rolled bandages, and served on rationing boards.

21 (5) Our “Rosie the Riveter”, the women who
22 worked and sacrificed to strengthen this country
23 during World War II, are among the greatest living
24 heroines in the United States.

25 (6) These women persevered, despite often fac-
26 ing harassment from their male colleagues and dis-

1 approval from their male family members, and all
2 the while continued to maintain their “other jobs”
3 as caretakers of children and their households.

4 (7) Minority women also overcame long held
5 policies of discrimination and made significant con-
6 tributions to the war effort.

7 (8) Because of the “Rosies”, Federal, State,
8 and local agencies coordinated with business owners
9 to develop child care programs and other supports
10 for working mothers.

11 (9) The example that these women set during
12 World War II continues to inspire us and blaze a
13 path for the working women of today.

14 (10) Specifically, the images of “Rosie the Riv-
15 eter” and the phrase “We Can Do It” continue to 16 symbolize the empowerment of women today, rep-
17 resenting patriotic women who want to serve and 18 strengthen their country.
