A BILL

To amend the Trade Act of 1974 to provide adjustment assistance to certain workers adversely affected by reduced exports resulting from tariffs imposed as retaliation for United States tariff increases, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Assistance for Workers
5       Harmed by Tariffs on Exports Act”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress finds the following:

1                         (1) In recognition that trade policy can result
2                         in disparate and disruptive changes to the economy,
3                         the Trade Adjustment Assistance program was en-
4                         acted to help workers adversely impacted by the 5                         trade policy decisions of the Federal Government.

6                         (2) The Trump Administration has made clear
7                         that it intends to aggressively use Federal trade
8                         statutes, including section 232 of the Trade Expan-
9                         sion Act of 1962 (19 U.S.C. 1862), section 301 of 10                         the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2411), and poten-
11                         tially the International Emergency Economic Powers
12                         Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), to increase tariffs on 13                         selected imports.

14                         (3) Foreign countries affected by such tariff in-
15                         creases have, as of the date of the enactment of this
16                         Act, already raised tariffs on United States exports
17                         or have indicated that they intend to respond by 18                         raising tariffs on such exports.

19                         (4) Increased tariffs on such exports threaten 20                         to reduce employment in affected sectors of the 21                         United States economy.

22                         (5) Workers adversely impacted by these effects
23                         deserve adjustment assistance.

1   SEC. 3. ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE FOR RETALIATORY TAR-

2                 IFF INCREASES.

3             Section 222(a)(2) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19

4 U.S.C. 2272(a)(2)) is amended—

5                 (1) in subparagraph (A)(iii), by striking “or” at 6             the end;

7                 (2) in subparagraph (B)(ii), by striking the pe-
8             riod at the end and inserting “; or”; and

9                 (3) by adding at the end the following:

10                 “(C)(i) the sales or production, or both, of such 11             firm have decreased absolutely;

13             supplied by such workers’ firm have decreased;

14                 “(iii) the decrease in exports described in clause
15             (ii) resulted in whole or in part from duties imposed
16             on such exports by a foreign country in response to 17             duties imposed by the United States on exports from 18             that country pursuant to an action taken under the 19             authority of—

20                 “(I) section 232 of the Trade Expansion
21             Act of 1962 (19 U.S.C. 1862);

22                 “(II) section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974
23             (19 U.S.C. 2411); or

24                 “(III) the International Emergency Eco-
25             nomic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.);
26             and

1           “(iv) the decrease in exports described in clause
2           (ii) contributed importantly to such workers’ separa-
3           tion or threat of separation and to the decline in the 4           sales or production of such firm.”.
