S. 3607

To strengthen the participation of elected national legislators in the activities of the Organization of American States and reaffirm United States support for Organization of American States human rights and anti-corruption initiatives, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 11, 2018

Mr. CARDIN (for himself, Mr. WICKER, and Mr. PERDUE) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To strengthen the participation of elected national legislators in the activities of the Organization of American States and reaffirm United States support for Organization of American States human rights and anti-corruption initiatives, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Organization of Amer-
5 ican States Legislative Engagement Act of 2018”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

1 (1) The Charter of the Organization of Amer-
2 ican States establishes that “representative democ-
3 racy is an indispensable condition for the stability,
4 peace and development of the region”.

5 (2) Article 2 of the Inter-American Democratic 6 Charter of the Organization of American States af-
7 firms that “the effective exercise of representative 8 democracy is the basis for the rule of law and of the 9 constitutional regimes of the member states of the 10 Organization of American States”.

11 (3) Article 26 of the Inter-American Demo-
12 cratic Charter states that “the OAS will continue to 13 carry out programs and activities designed to pro-
14 mote democratic principles and practices and 15 strengthen a democratic culture in the Hemisphere”.

16 (4) In accordance with the OAS Charter and 17 the Inter-American Democratic Charter, the OAS
18 General Assembly, OAS Permanent Council, and 19 OAS Secretariat have established a wide range of co-
20 operative agreements with domestic and inter-
21 national organizations, including national legislative 22 institutions.

23 (5) In 2004, OAS General Assembly Resolution
24 2044 (XXXIV-O/04) appealed for the “strength-
25 ening of legislatures, as well as inter-parliamentary

1 cooperation on key items of the inter-American
2 agenda, with a view, in particular, to generating ini-
3 tiatives to fight corruption, poverty, inequality, and 4 social exclusion”.

5 (6) In 2005, OAS General Assembly Resolution
6 2095 (XXXV-O/05) called on the OAS Secretariat
7 to “invite [. . .] the presidents or speakers of the 8 national legislative institutions of the Americas, i.e., 9 congresses, parliaments, or national assemblies,
10 [. . .] to attend a special meeting of the Permanent
11 Council [. . .] for the initiation of a dialogue on top-
12 ics on the hemispheric agenda”.

13 (7) In 2014 and 2015, the OAS Secretariat ex-
14 panded its engagement with elected national legisla-
15 tors from OAS member states by convening two 16 meetings of presidents of national legislatures, first 17 in Lima, Peru and subsequently in Santiago, Chile.

18 (8) However, no formal, permanent procedures
19 exist to facilitate the participation of elected national 20 legislators from OAS member states in OAS activi-
21 ties.

22 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

23 It is that sense of Congress that—

1 (1) elected national legislators play an essential
2 role in the exercise of representative democracy in 3 the Americas, including—

4 (A) promoting the rule of law and com-
5 bating corruption;

6 (B) defending human rights and funda-
7 mental freedoms; and

8 (C) advancing the principles and practices
9 expressed in the Charter of the Organization of 10 American States, the American Declaration on 11 the Rights and Duties of Man, and the Inter-
12 American Democratic Charter;

13 (2) establishing procedures to facilitate and for-
14 malize the participation of elected national legisla-
15 tors from OAS member states in OAS activities
16 would contribute to the promotion of democratic 17 principles and practices and strengthen a democratic 18 culture in the Western Hemisphere;

19 (3) increasing and strengthening the participa-
20 tion of elected national legislators from OAS mem-
21 ber states in OAS activities would advance the prin-
22 ciples and proposals expressed in section 4 of the 23 Organization of American States Revitalization and 24 Reform Act of 2013 (Public Law 113–41; 127 Stat.
25 549);

1 (4) the OAS General Assembly, OAS Perma-
2 nent Council, and OAS Secretariat should take all
3 necessary steps to ensure greater participation of 4 elected national legislators from OAS member states
5 in OAS activities; and

6 (5) the OAS Permanent Council resolutions ti-
7 tled “Guidelines for the Participation of Civil Society
8 in OAS Activities” and “Strategies for Increasing 9 and Strengthening Participation by Civil Society Or-10 ganizations in OAS Activities” should serve as im-
11 portant references for efforts to bolster the partici-
12 pation of elected national legislators from OAS
13 member states in OAS activities.
