

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 672

To require a report on designation of North Korea as a state sponsor of terrorism, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 21, 2017

Mr. CRUZ (for himself, Mr. TILLIS, Mr. HELLER, Ms. MURKOWSKI, Mr. RUBIO, Mr. SULLIVAN, Mr. GARDNER, and Mr. INHOFE) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To require a report on designation of North Korea as a state sponsor of terrorism, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “North Korea State
5 Sponsor of Terrorism Designation Act of 2017”.

1 SEC. 2. REPORT ON DESIGNATION OF GOVERNMENT OF
2 NORTH KOREA AS A STATE SPONSOR OF TER-
3 RORISM.

4 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
5 ings:

6 (1) The United States Government designated 7 the Government of North Korea a state sponsor of 8 terrorism on January 20, 1988.

9 (2) On October 11, 2008, North Korea’s des-
10 ignation as a state sponsor of terrorism was re-
11 cinded, following commitments by the Government
12 of North Korea to dismantle its nuclear weapons
13 program. However, North Korea has failed to live up 14 to these commitments.

15 (3) On October 22, 2015, the U.S. Special Rep-
16 resentative for North Korea Policy with the Depart-
17 ment of State testified before the House Foreign Af-
18 fairs Subcommittee on Terrorism, Nonproliferation,
19 and Trade that North Korea’s “conduct poses a 20 growing threat to the United States, our friends in 21 the region, and the global nonproliferation regime”
22 and the Deputy Coordinator for Homeland Security, 23 Screening, and Designations with the Department of 24 State noted that “weapons transfers that violate 25 nonproliferation or missile control regimes could be 26 a relevant factor for consideration, depending on the

1 circumstances, consistent with the statutory criteria
2 for designation as a state sponsor of terrorism”.

3 (4) The Government of North Korea has har-
4 bored members of the Japanese Red Army since a 5 1970 hijacking and continues to harbor the sur-
6 viving hijackers to this day.

7 (5) On July 16, 2010, in the case of Calderon-
8 Cardona v. Democratic People’s Republic of Korea
9 (case number 08–01367), the United States District
10 Court for the District of Puerto Rico found that the 11 Government of North Korea provided material sup-12 port to the Japanese Red Army, designated as a for-13 eign terrorist organization between 1997 and 2001,
14 in furtherance of a 1972 terrorist attack at Lod Air-
15 port, Israel, that killed 26 people, including 17
16 Americans.

17 (6) In the case of Chaim Kaplan v. Hezbollah
18 (case number 09–646), a United States district
19 court found in 2014 that North Korea materially 20 supported terrorist attacks by Hezbollah, a des-
21 ignated foreign terrorist organization, against Israel
22 in 2006.

23 (7) In June 2010, Major Kim Myong-ho and 24 Major Dong Myong-gwan of North Korea’s Recon-
25 naissance General Bureau pled guilty in a South Ko-

1 rean court to attempting to assassinate Hwang
2 Jang-yop, a North Korean dissident in exile, on the 3 orders of Lieutenant General Kim Yong-chol, the 4 head of North Korea's Reconnaissance General Bu-
5 reau. The court sentenced each defendant to 10
6 years in prison.

7 (8) In March 2015, the South Korean govern-
8 ment concluded that North Korea was responsible 9 for a December 2014 cyber attack against multiple 10 nuclear power plants in South Korea. The South 11 Korean government stated that the attacks were in-12 tended to cause a malfunction at the plants' reac-
13 tors, and described the attacks as acts of "cyber-ter-14 ror targeting our country".

15 (9) On December 19, 2015, the Federal Bureau
16 of Investigation (FBI) concluded that North Korea
17 was responsible for a cyber attack on Sony Pictures
18 Entertainment and a subsequent threat of violence
19 against theaters that showed the film "The Inter-20 view". The FBI concluded that the "Guardians of 21 Peace", which sent the threat to Sony Pictures, was 22 a unit of North Korea's Reconnaissance General Bu-
23 reau, its foreign intelligence service.

24 (10) South Korean and Malaysian authorities
25 have alleged that officials from North Korea's secret

1 police and Foreign Ministry were involved in the poi-2 soning and killing of the estranged half-brother of 3 the country's leader, Kim Jong-nam, using the 4 chemical weapon VX nerve agent, a substance
5 banned for use as a weapon by the United Nations
6 Chemical Weapons Convention, on February 13,
7 2017, in Kuala Lumpur.

8 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the 9 Congress that the Government of North Korea should be 10 designated as a state sponsor of terrorism.

11 (c) DETERMINATION.—Not later than 90 days after 12 the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of 13 State shall submit to the appropriate congressional com-
14 mittees a determination as to whether North Korea meets 15 the criteria for designation as a state sponsor of terrorism.

16 (d) FORM.—The report required by subsection (c)
17 shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may include
18 a classified annex, if appropriate.

19 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

20 In this Act:

21 (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
22 TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-
23 mittees” means—

24 (A) the Committee on Foreign Relations of 25 the Senate; and

(B) the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives.

(3) NORTH KOREA.—The term “North Korea” means the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea.

(4) STATE SPONSOR OF TERRORISM.—The term “state sponsor of terrorism” means a country the government of which the Secretary of State has determined, for purposes of section 6(j) of the Export Administration Act of 1979 (50 U.S.C. 4605(j)) (as in effect pursuant to the International Emergency Economic Powers Act), section 620A of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2371), section 40 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2780), or any other provision of law, is a government that has repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism.
