RESOLUTION

Calling on the Government of Iran to fulfill repeated promises of assistance in the case of Robert Levinson, the longest held United States civilian in our Nation's history.

Whereas United States citizen Robert Levinson is a retired agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), a resident of Coral Springs, Florida, the husband of Christine Levinson, father of their seven children, and grandfather of their six grandchildren;

Whereas Robert Levinson traveled from Dubai, United Arab Emirates, to Kish Island, Iran, on March 8, 2007;

Whereas after traveling to Kish Island and checking into the Hotel Maryam, Robert Levinson disappeared on March 9, 2007;

Whereas in December 2007, Robert Levinson's wife, Christine, traveled to Kish Island to retrace Mr. Levinson's steps and met with officials of the Government of Iran who pledged to help in the investigation;

Whereas for 10 years, the United States Government has continually pressed the Government of Iran to provide any information on the whereabouts of Robert Levinson and to help ensure his prompt and safe return to his family;

Whereas officials of the Government of Iran promised their continued assistance to the relatives of Robert Levinson during the visit of the family to the Islamic Republic of Iran in December 2007;

Whereas in November 2010, the Levinson family received a video of Mr. Levinson in captivity, representing the first proof of life since his disappearance and providing some initial indications that he was being held somewhere in southwest Asia;

Whereas in April 2011, the Levinson family received a series of pictures of Mr. Levinson, which provided further indications that he was being held somewhere in southwest Asia;

Whereas Secretary of State John Kerry stated on August 28, 2013, "The United States respectfully asks the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran to work cooperatively with us in our efforts to help U.S. citizen Robert Levinson.”;

Whereas, on September 28, 2013, during the first direct phone conversation between the heads of governments of the United States and Iran since 1979, President Barack Obama raised the case of Robert Levinson to President of Iran Hassan Rouhani and urged the President of Iran to help locate Mr. Levinson and reunite him with his family;

Whereas, on August 29, 2014, Secretary of State Kerry again stated that the United States “respectfully request[s] the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran work cooperatively with us to find Mr. Levinson and bring him home”;

Whereas, on January 16, 2016, the Government of Iran released five United States citizens detained in Iran;

Whereas, on January 17, 2016, President Obama stated that “even as we rejoice in the safe return of others, we will never forget about Bob,” referring to Robert Levinson, and that “each and every day but especially today our hearts are with the Levinson family and we will never rest until their family is whole again”;

Whereas, on January 19, 2016, White House Press Secretary Josh Earnest stated that the United States Government had “secured a commitment from the Iranians to use the channel that has now been opened to secure the release of those individuals that we know were being held by Iran ... to try and gather information about Mr. Levinson’s possible whereabouts”;

Whereas the Government of Iran's most recent commitment to assist in locating and returning Bob Levinson has not yielded any meaningful results;

Whereas, on November 23, 2016, the United Nations Working Group on Arbitrary Detention (UNWGAD) adopted Opinion No. 50/2016, concerning Robert Levinson in which the UNWGAD found Iran responsible for the arbitrary detention of Mr. Levinson;

Whereas, on November 26, 2013, Mr. Levinson became the longest held United States civilian in our Nation's history; and

Whereas the Federal Bureau of Investigation continues to offer up to a $5,000,000 reward for information leading to Mr. Levinson's safe return: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) recognizes that March 9, 2017, marked 10
3 years since the disappearance of Robert Levinson
4 from Kish Island, Iran;

5 (2) recognizes that Robert Levinson is the longest
6 held United States civilian in our Nation's history;

8 (3) notes that repeated pledges by officials of
9 the Government of Iran to provide their Government's assistance in the case of Robert Levinson
10 have not led to any meaningful progress in locating
11 or returning Robert Levinson;

13 (4) urges the Government of Iran to take meaningful steps towards fulfilling its repeated promises

1 to assist in locating and returning Robert Levinson,
2 including immediately providing all available infor-
3 mation from all entities of the Government of Iran
4 regarding the disappearance of Robert Levinson to 5 the United States Government;

6 (5) urges the President and the allies of the 7 United States to continue to press the Government
8 of Iran at every opportunity to locate and return
9 Robert Levinson, notwithstanding ongoing and seri-
10 ous disagreements the United States Government
11 has with the Government of Iran on a broad array
12 of issues, including Iran's ballistic missile program,
13 sponsorship of international terrorism, and human
14 rights abuses;

15 (6) notes that in addition to these other serious
16 issues, further delay in locating and returning Rob-
17 ert Levinson remains a significant obstacle to im-
18 proving United States-Iran relations; and

19 (7) expresses sympathy to the family of Robert
20 Levinson for their anguish and expresses hope that 21 their ordeal can be brought to an end in the near 22 future.
