

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 659

Affirming that States should maintain primacy for the regulation of hydraulic fracturing for oil and natural gas production on State and private lands and that the President should not declare a moratorium on the use of hydraulic fracturing on Federal lands (including the Outer Continental Shelf), State lands, private lands, or lands held in trust for an Indian Tribe unless such moratorium is authorized by an Act of Congress.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 29, 2019

Mr. BISHOP of Utah submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and in addition to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

RESOLUTION

Affirming that States should maintain primacy for the regulation of hydraulic fracturing for oil and natural gas production on State and private lands and that the President should not declare a moratorium on the use of hydraulic fracturing on Federal lands (including the Outer Continental Shelf), State lands, private lands, or lands held in trust for an Indian Tribe unless such moratorium is authorized by an Act of Congress.

- 1 Resolved, That States should maintain primacy for
- 2 the regulation of hydraulic fracturing for oil and natural

1 gas production on State and private lands and that the
2 President should not declare a moratorium on the use of
3 hydraulic fracturing on Federal lands (including the Outer
4 Continental Shelf), State lands, private lands, or lands
5 held in trust for an Indian Tribe unless such moratorium
6 is authorized by an Act of Congress.

