RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that Congress should enact the Voters with Disabilities Bill of Rights to fulfill the promises of the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 and other civil rights laws which demand equal access to the ballot box for people with disabilities and to reaffirm and ensure that voters with disabilities have equal access to the ballot box.

Whereas the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported that 61,000,000 Americans live with a disability;

Whereas the School of Management and Labor Relations at Rutgers University projected that in 2016 there were 35,400,000 people with disabilities eligible to vote in the United States, one-sixth of the total American electorate;

Whereas, despite the size, diversity, and the interest of people with disabilities to participate in the United States electoral system, America's elections are woefully, inexcusably, and unjustly not fully accessible to all voters;

Whereas the Government Accountability Office found that 65 percent of voting stations had an accessible voting system that could impede the casting of a private and independent vote in 2016;

Whereas despite the demonstrated investment of the disability community in elections, people with disabilities continue to turn out to vote at a lower rate than their nondisabled peers; and

Whereas the School of Management and Labor Relations at Rutgers University found that voter turnout of people with disabilities lagged behind the nondisabled population by a difference of 6 percentage points in 2016 and 5.7 percentage points in 2012: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Rep-
 2 resentatives that Congress should enact the Voters with
 3 Disabilities Bill of Rights to fulfill the promises of the 4 Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 and other civil
 5 rights laws which demand equal access to the ballot box
 6 for people with disabilities and to reaffirm and ensure that
 7 voters with disabilities have equal access to the ballot box,
 8 including by the following:

1 (1) Reaffirming the right to a private and inde-
2 pendent vote.

3 (2) Reaffirming the right to equal access to
4 voter registration.

5 (3) Reaffirming the right to request accom-
6 modations and materials in accessible formats while
7 voting.

8 (4) Reaffirming the right to the assistant of his
9 or her choice while voting, with the exception of the 10 voter's employer or union representative.

11 (5) Reaffirming the right to an accommodation
12 when waiting in line at a polling place.

13 (6) Reaffirming the right to obtain new ballots
14 for voters who make mistakes while filling out their 15 ballots.

16 (7) Ensuring the right to vote after the polls
17 close if they are in line, or waiting to vote curbside,
18 prior to the polls closing.

19 (8) Reaffirming the right to an accessible poll-
20 ing station.

21 (9) Ensuring the right to vote while under
22 guardianship.

23 (10) Ensuring the ability to report violations of 24 their voting rights and advocate on problems they 25 experienced while voting.

- 1 (11) Ensuring access to voting systems and ma-
- 2 terials in polling places that are accessible, timely,
- 3 and well-maintained.
