10 “(vii) Mental health screening for
11 postpartum depression.

12 “(D) PROTECTIONS FOR PRISONERS.—

13 With respect to services provided by obstetri-
14 cian-gynecologists, female prisoners shall be
15 provided the following:

16 “(i) Informed consent for any exam or
17 procedure.

18 “(ii) The right to refuse non-emer-
19 gency care.

20 “(iii) Clear communication in the pre-
21 ferred language of the prisoner.

22 “(E) STANDARDS.—In providing services
23 under this paragraph, the obstetrician-gyne-
24 cologist shall use of trauma-informed care
25 standards for survivors of sexual violence.

1 “(F) REFERRALS.—The Director—

2 “(i) shall establish a process for fe-
3 male prisoners to receive referrals to and
4 care from other medical specialists when
5 medically necessary, as determined by the 6 obstetrician-gynecologist;

7 “(ii) shall ensure that transportation
8 and security arrangements do not delay a
9 prisoner’s access to such care; and

10 “(iii) may not deny providing a pris-
11 oner with such care based on cost or staff-
12 ing constraints.

13 “(G) VACANCIES.—The Director shall fill
14 any vacancy in an obstetrician-gynecologist po-
15 sition required under this paragraph not later
16 than 42 days after such vacancy is created.”.

17 SEC. 3. REPORT.

18 Not later than one year after the date of enactment
19 of this Act, and on an annual basis thereafter, the Direc-
20 tor of the Bureau of Prisons shall submit to Congress a
21 report that includes the following:
