1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “USMCA Travel and 5 Tourism Resiliency Act”.

6 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7 In this Act:

1 (1) NORTH AMERICA.—The term “North Amer-
2 ica” means the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

3 (2) USMCA.—The term “USMCA” has the 4 meaning given that term in section 3 of the United 5 States-Mexico-Canada Agreement Implementation
6 Act (19 U.S.C. 4502(9)).

7 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

8 It is the sense of Congress that—

9 (1) the travel and tourism industry is an inte-
10 gral part of the economy of the United States, worth 11 approximately $1,300,000,000,000 and supporting 12 approximately 15,000,000 jobs in the United States
13 in 2024, according to the U.S. Travel Association;

14 (2) the United States is a global leader in the 15 trade of travel and tourism services;

16 (3) according to the Bureau of Economic Anal-
17 ysis of the Department of Commerce, travel and 18 tourism was the top services export of the United 19 States in 2024, which—

20 (A) accounted for 19 percent of all United 21 States services exports and 7 percent of all
22 United States exports;

23 (B) were worth approximately 24 $214,000,000,000; and

1 (C) supported an approximate
2 $35,000,000,000 trade surplus;

3 (4) Canada and Mexico are important trading
4 partners for the travel and tourism economy of the 5 United States, typically accounting for approxi-
6 mately half of international visitations to the United 7 States;

8 (5) Canada is the top source of international 9 visitors to the United States, with approximately 10 20,400,000 visits in 2024, generating approximately 11 $20,500,000,000 in spending and supporting ap-
12 proximately 140,000 jobs in the United States;

13 (6) Mexico is another top source of inter-
14 national visitors to the United States, generating bil-
15 lions of dollars for the economy of the United States
16 and supporting thousands of jobs in the United 17 States;

18 (7) it is in the interest of people in the United 19 States to travel efficiently and openly to Canada and 20 Mexico;

21 (8) the USMCA underpins much of trade in 22 North America and provides an important channel
23 for discussions and activities that further the com-
24 petitiveness and economic growth of the United 25 States; and

1 (9) the establishment of a Travel and Tourism
2 Trade Working Group under the USMCA would 3 help to support the continued growth of the tourism
4 industry in North America and the good-paying jobs
5 that industry supports.
