8 (4) shall provide developers of covered applica-
9 tions the technical ability to access an age signal 10 where the account holder or the account holder's 11 parent has agreed to share such age signal.

12 (b) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-13 tion shall be construed to—

(1) preclude an application distribution provider from using multiple commercially reasonable methods to obtain, estimate, or provide the age category of an account holder; or

(2) restrict an application distribution provider's ability to satisfy the requirements of this section by obtaining a minor account holder's age from the minor's parent.

22 SEC. 102. APPLICATION DISTRIBUTOR AND DEVELOPER OB-23 LIGATIONS.

24 (a) APPLICATION DISTRIBUTION PROVIDERS.—

1 (1) OBLIGATIONS.—An application distribution
2 provider shall do the following:

3 (A) Provide a minor account holder’s par-4 ent with the ability to prevent the minor from 5 acquiring or using a developer’s covered appli-6 cation from the application distributor.

7 (B) Provide developers with the ability to 8 provide information regarding their relevant pa-

15 in subsection (b) with respect to any covered 16 applications for which the application distribu-17 tion provider is also the developer.

18 (D) Not use data collected from third-

20 pliance with this section to give the application 21 distribution provider’s own applications pref-22 erence relative to those of third parties, or to 23 otherwise use such data in an anti-competitive 24 manner.

1 (2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this 2 section shall be construed to prevent an application 3 distribution provider from creating a user interface
4 or centralized page for minor account holders’ par-
5 ents to block categories by age rating of covered ap-6 plications based on the content and features of the 7 covered application.

8 (b) DEVELOPERS OF COVERED APPLICATIONS.—

9 (1) IN GENERAL.—A developer of a covered ap-10 plication shall do the following:

11 (A) Report to the application distribution
12 provider whether the application of the devel-
13 oper provides a different experience for adult 14 users than for minor users or is intended only 15 for adults.

16 (B) With respect to any covered applica-
17 tion that is authorized to be used by a minor, 18 provide information regarding privacy and on-19 line safety settings to help parents support mi-20 nors using such application.

21 (C) Use commercially reasonable efforts to 22 determine whether a user is an adult or a minor 23 with a reasonable level of certainty in accord-24 ance with paragraph (2).

2 that users who are minors cannot engage in any 3 activity that has been restricted by the devel-4 oper for adults only.

5 (E) Obtain consent prior to permitting
6 minor account holders from accessing a covered 7 application or portion thereof that the developer
8 has designated as unsuitable for use by minors

11 (F) Not deliver personalized advertising to 12 minors.

13 (G) With respect to an age signal re-
14 quested by a developer from an application dis-15 tribution provider regarding use of a covered 16 application, the developer—

17 (i) shall request the minimum amount
18 of information needed for purposes of com-
19 pliance with this Act;

20 (ii) may not willfully disregard any in-
21 formation regarding an individual's age or 22 age category that is otherwise available to 23 the developer;

24 (iii) may not share the information
25 obtained from the age signal with third

1 parties, except for a service provider, but 2 only if necessary for such service provider
3 to implement safety measures or privacy
4 protections for minors or otherwise re-5 quired to do so by law; and

6 (iv) may not use the age signal for 7 any purpose beyond that intended by this 8 Act, including using the age signal to ob-9 tain or attempt to obtain a user's date of 10 birth.

11 (H) In the event that a developer uses a 12 method other than an age signal provided by an 13 application distribution provider to satisfy the 14 requirements of this section, the developer—

15 (i) shall request the minimum amount
16 of information needed for purposes of com-
17 pliance with this Act;

19 formation regarding an individual's age or 20 age category that is available to the devel-21 oper;

22 (iii) may not share the information
23 obtained in the course of complying with 24 this section with third parties, except for a 25 service provider, but only if necessary for such service provider to implement safety measures or privacy protections for minors or otherwise required to do so by law; and

(iv) may not use age data for any purpose beyond that intended by this Act, including using age data to obtain or attempt to obtain a user's date of birth.

(2) COMMERCIALY REASONABLE EFFORT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), for the purposes paragraph (1)(C), an age signal provided to a developer by an application distribution provider shall be considered a commercially reasonable effort.

(B) EXCEPTION.—With respect to an application that is intended only for adults and is required by law to restrict access to adults, an age signal provided to a developer by an application distribution provider that indicates a user is—

(i) a minor shall be a sufficient basis to block access to such application; or

(ii) an adult shall not, by itself, satisfy the requirement to determine whether a user is an adult with a reasonable level of certainty, including for purposes of

1 other laws that require access restrictions
 2 based on age.

3 (c) SPECIAL RULES.—

4 (1) COMMON CONTROL.—If a developer and an 5 application distribution provider are controlled by 6 the same entity, the developer may rely on age de-7 terminations made by that entity.

8 (2) APPLICABILITY TO COVERED WEBSITES.—A 9 developer of a covered website shall have the same 10 requirements as a developer of a covered application 11 under this Act and may carry over or repurpose an 12 age signal received from an application distribution 13 provider under section 101(a)(4) to fulfill such re-14 quirements with respect to the developer’s covered 15 website.

16 TITLE II—LIABILITY AND 17 ENFORCEMENT

18 SEC. 201. LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY.

19 (a) APPLICATION DISTRIBUTION PROVIDERS.—An 20 application distribution provider that makes a good faith 21 effort to comply with the obligations of this Act (as deter-22 mined by the Commission or a court taking into consider-23 ation available technology) shall not be liable under any 24 provision of this Act, or otherwise liable for its actions

 2 the provision of an age signal:

3 (1) Any erroneous age signal.

4 (2) Any conduct by a developer of a covered ap-5 plication that receives any age signal.

6 (3) Failing to provide an age signal due to any 7 reasonable technical limitations or outages that pre-8 vent the provision of the age signal upon request.

9 (4) Not providing the age signal to developers 10 that do not adhere to reasonable safety standards 11 and application distribution provider policies.

12 (b) DEVELOPERS.—

13 (1) SOLE LIABILITY FOR DETERMINING 14 WHETHER AN APPLICATION IS A COVERED APPLICA-15 TION.—A developer shall be solely responsible for 16 correctly identifying whether an application of the 17 developer is a covered application under this Act. No 18 application distribution provider is required to 19 proactively identify a covered application, and an ap-20 plication distribution provider shall not be held liable 21 in cases where a developer provides inaccurate infor-22 mation about its applications.

23 (2) ERRONEOUS AGE SIGNAL.—A developer of a 24 covered application shall not be liable for an erro-25 neous age signal provided by an application distribu-

1 tion provider if the developer makes a reasonable ef-
2 fort, taking into consideration available technology, 3 to properly use the age signal and carry out com-
4 mercially reasonable methods to obtain or estimate 5 the age of an account holder.

6 SEC. 202. ENFORCEMENT.

7 (a) UNFAIR OR DECEPTIVE ACTS OR PRACTICES.—
8 A violation of this Act or a regulation promulgated there-9 under shall be treated as a violation of a rule defining 10 an unfair or deceptive act or practice under section 11 18(a)(1)(B) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 12 U.S.C. 57a(a)(1)(B)).

13 (b) POWERS OF THE COMMISSION.—

14 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall en-
15 force this Act in the same manner, by the same 16 means, and with the same jurisdiction, powers, and 17 duties as though all applicable terms and provisions 18 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 41 19 et seq.) were incorporated into and made a part of 20 this Act.

21 (2) PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES.—Any person
22 who violates this Act or a regulation promulgated 23 thereunder shall be subject to the penalties and enti-24 tled to the privileges and immunities provided in the

1 Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 41 et 2 seq.).

3 (3) AUTHORITY PRESERVED.—Nothing in this 4 Act shall be construed to limit the authority of the 5 Commission under any other provision of law.

6 SEC. 203. PREEMPTION.

7 No State or political subdivision of a State may main-8 tain, enforce, prescribe, or continue in effect any law, rule, 9 regulation, requirement, standard, or other provision hav-10 ing the force and effect of law of any State, or political 11 subdivision of a State, related to the provisions of this Act.

12 SEC. 204. SEVERABILITY.

13 If any provision of this Act or the application of any 14 provision to any person or circumstance is held invalid by 15 a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the 16 remainder of this Act shall be given effect without the in-17 valid provision or application.

18 SEC. 205. EFFECTIVE DATE.

19 This Act shall take effect on the date that is 2 years 20 after the date of its enactment.
