PROVISION AND SCOPE OF SERVICES

§361.41 Processing referrals and applications.

- (a) Referrals. The designated State unit must establish and implement standards for the prompt and equitable handling of referrals of individuals for vocational rehabilitation services, including referrals of individuals made through the one-stop service delivery systems under section 121 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. The standards must include timelines for making good faith efforts to inform these individuals of application requirements and to gather information necessary to initiate an assessment for determining eligibility and priority for services.
- (b) Applications. (1) Once an individual has submitted an application for vocational rehabilitation services, in-

- cluding applications made through common intake procedures in one-stop centers under section 121 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, an eligibility determination must be made within 60 days, unless—
- (i) Exceptional and unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the designated State unit preclude making an eligibility determination within 60 days and the designated State unit and the individual agree to a specific extension of time; or
- (ii) An exploration of the individual's abilities, capabilities, and capacity to perform in work situations is carried out in accordance with §361.42(e).
- (2) An individual is considered to have submitted an application when the individual or the individual's representative, as appropriate—
- (i)(A) Has completed and signed an agency application form;
- (B) Has completed a common intake application form in a one-stop center requesting vocational rehabilitation services; or
- (C) Has otherwise requested services from the designated State unit;
- (ii) Has provided to the designated State unit information necessary to initiate an assessment to determine eligibility and priority for services; and
- (iii) Is available to complete the assessment process.
- (3) The designated State unit must ensure that its application forms are widely available throughout the State, particularly in the one-stop centers under section 121 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act.

(Authority: Sections 12(c), 101(a)(6)(A), and 102(a)(6) of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended; 29 U.S.C. 709(c), 721(a)(6)(A), and 722(a)(6))

§ 361.42 Assessment for determining eligibility and priority for services.

In order to determine whether an individual is eligible for vocational rehabilitation services and the individual's priority under an order of selection for services (if the State is operating under an order of selection), the designated state unit must conduct an assessment for determining eligibility and priority for services. The assessment must be
