Line-Item Veto: House completed all general debate and began consideration of amendments to H.R. 2, to give the President line-item veto authority over appropriation Acts and targeted tax benefits in revenue Acts. Consideration of amendments will resume on Friday, February 3. Pages H1078–H1142

Agreed To:

The Blute technical amendment; Page H1105

The Clinger amendment that provides clarifying language more closely defining the President's line-item veto authority as limited to dollar amounts specified in appropriation Acts, conference reports and their accompanying joint explanatory statements, thus preventing the President from going outside these parameters and changing statutory language; Page H1107

The Pelosi amendment that provides language prohibiting the President from changing any limitation of discretionary budget authority set forth in any appropriation Act; Page H1107

The Thurman amendment that provides that any Member of the House, if supported by 49 other Members, may move to strike the disapproval of any rescission (or rescissions) of budget authority or any proposed repeal of a targeted tax benefit, as applicable; and Page H1130

The Deal amendment that provides for expedited judicial review of the constitutionality of provisions. Page H1139

Rejected:

The Moran amendment that sought to exempt the Judicial Branch from the scope of the line-item veto (rejected by a recorded vote of 119 ayes to 309 noes, Roll No. 85); Pages H1115–16

The Slaughter amendment that sought to provide language which would expand the definition of “targeted tax benefit” to mean any provision of a revenue Act which has the practical effect of providing a benefit in the form of a different treatment to a particular taxpayer or a limited class of taxpayers (rejected by a recorded vote of 196 ayes to 231 noes, Roll No. 86); Page H1125

The Skelton amendment that sought to provide that the President may not include in a special message any rescission of more than $50 million of discretionary budget authority for any program, project, or activity within the major functional category for national defense (rejected by recorded vote of 52 ayes to 362 noes, Roll No. 87); Page H1138

The Weldon amendment to the foregoing Skelton amendment that the President may not include in a special message any rescission of more than $200 million of discretionary budget authority for any program, project, or activity within the major functional category for national defense; and Page H1138

The Kanjorski amendment that sought to provide that the provisions will terminate after five years (rejected by a recorded vote of 153 ayes to 258 noes, Roll No. 88). Pages H1141–42

A point of order was sustained against the Gene Green of Texas amendment to the foregoing Skelton amendment that sought to exempt Medicare legislation in addition to national defense programs from the Presidential line-item veto. Page H1135

H. Res. 55, the rule under which the bill is being considered, was agreed to earlier by a voice vote. Page H1085

Committees to Sit: It was made in order that the following committees and subcommittees be permitted to sit on Friday, February 3 during proceedings of the House under the five-minute rule: Committees on Economic and Educational Opportunities, Judiciary, and Science. Page H1142

Amendments Ordered Printed: Amendments ordered printed pursuant to the rule appears on page H1157.
