

appeal of the ruling by the Chair that H. Res. 57, to preserve the constitutional role of the House of Representatives to provide for the expenditure of public money and ensure that the executive branch of the United States Government remains accountable to the House of Representatives for each expenditure of public money, did not raise a question of the privileges of the House. Pages H1298–H1302

Victim Restitution Act: By a yea-and-nay vote of 431 yeas, Roll No. 97, the House passed H.R. 665, to control crime by mandatory victim restitution. Pages H1302–14

Agreed to the committee amendment in the nature of the substitute. Page H1313

Agreed to the Sanders amendment, as modified by the McCollum amendment, that requires corporations convicted of a white collar crime to notify the victims of that crime. Pages H1312–13

H. Res. 60, the rule under which the bill was considered, was agreed to earlier by voice vote. Pages H1302–06

Meeting Hour: Agreed to meet at 9:00 a.m. on Friday, February 10. Page H1326

Unanimous-Consent Request: It was made in order that the Speaker at any time may declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of H.R. 729, to control crime by a more effective death penalty, and that the first reading of the bill be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill shall be waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour, equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary. After general debate, the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule for a period not to exceed 6 hours. It shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute ordered reported by the Committee on the Judiciary, and all points of order against the substitute shall be waived. The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered as having been read. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions. Page H1326

Exclusionary Rule Reform Act: House completed all general debate and began consideration of amendments to H.R. 666, to control crime by exclusionary rule reform; but came to no resolution thereon. Consideration of amendments will resume on Wednesday, February 8. Pages H1314–41

Rejected:

The Conyers amendment that sought to limit and codify the "good faith" exception to searches and seizures with warrants later to be found invalid; and to enact the current limited "good faith" exception for searches in which evidence was not excluded if it was retained in a "good faith" reliance on a statute, which was later held to be unconstitutional (rejected by a recorded vote of 138 yeas to 291 noes, Roll No. 98); and Pages H1323–31

The Watt amendment in the nature of a substitute that sought to strike provisions applying the "good faith" exception to the exclusionary rule to warrantless searches; and to replace it with the text of the fourth amendment of the United States Constitution (rejected by a recorded vote of 121 yeas to 303 noes, Roll No. 99). Pages H1332–41

H. Res. 61, the rule under which the bill is being considered, was agreed to earlier by voice vote. Pages H1314–16
