

and carry the banner to end what he recently, and so eloquently, referred to as bloodshed and tears in the heart of the land of milk and honey.

I recently had the opportunity to visit Israel for the first time, and to meet with Prime Minister Rabin. We have lost a unique and valiant man, and our prayers and heartfelt condolences go to the Rabin family and the people of Israel.

To the people of Israel, and all who dream of peace in the Middle East, let me just say that we in America will not forsake your cause. We cannot and must not let the sacrifice that Prime Minister Rabin, his family, and you have paid this week to be in vain. We must all rededicate ourselves to the long and arduous journey begun by leaders of great vision, courage, and wisdom.

We must continue to work together, in a bipartisan fashion, to bring Arabs, Israelis, Palestinians, Muslims, Jews, and Christians together in peace.

Prime Minister Rabin is indeed a martyr to peace. But his dream lives on. Please know that we will continue to support Israel and the peace process and one day, God willing, we will celebrate with you a secure, comprehensive and lasting peace in the Middle East.

IN HONOR OF MAJOR LINDA
SCHWARTZ

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 9, 1995

Ms. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker, on Veterans Day, Major Linda Schwartz will receive the Connecticut Department of Veterans Affairs Commendation Medal. Linda Schwartz truly embodies the spirit of this prestigious award, which is given "to those select few who have distinguished themselves through their service to Connecticut veterans and their families." I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring this outstanding individual who has done so much to address the needs of our veterans not only in Connecticut but across the country.

Linda Schwartz' work on behalf of our veterans has earned her the respect and admiration of all who know her. A deeply caring and compassionate woman, she has devoted herself to meeting the needs of Connecticut's homeless veterans. She brought the "stand down" concept to Connecticut in 1992 and has been an integral part of the success of this yearly event which gives homeless veterans access to a wide range of programs and services. Linda also co-founded "project partnership" in which the Vietnam Veterans Assistance Program has renovated houses for homeless and disabled veterans in conjunction with rehabilitation services at the West Haven VA Medical Center.

A skilled nurse who served with distinction in the Air Force, Linda has applied her medical background to the many health issues facing our veterans, including the effects of agent orange and post traumatic stress syndrome. Indeed, she is known nationally for her leadership on issues related to veterans health care and women veterans, and has testified numerous times before both Houses of Congress. She has also been appointed to several Federal advisory committees, including, most recently, the VA Advisory Committee on Women Veterans. Linda has also served as the president of the Vietnam Veterans Assistance Fund since its inception in 1989, and as acting director of government affairs for Vietnam Veterans of America.

It has been my great honor to work closely with Linda on a number of issues affecting veterans in my district. Linda's dynamic leadership and enthusiasm were instrumental in forging a partnership between veterans groups and Connecticut's labor unions to help Connecticut veterans enter the work force through an apprenticeship program. The West Haven VA Center, the Painters Union and the Carpenters Union have now joined together in a cooperative effort that I believe should serve as a model across the country.

Whether working with the local VA center or testifying before Congress, Linda Schwartz has been a tireless advocate for our veterans. I commend her for all that she has done for the veterans in my district, and congratulate her on this well-deserved honor.

TRIBUTE TO SEABURY DAY CARE CENTER

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 9, 1995

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend Seabury Day Care Center, a community-based center, which today celebrates 25 years of service educating and taking care of the children in my South Bronx congressional district.

Twenty-five years ago a group of parents organized to make a difference in our community. They recognized that the problems facing inner-city neighborhoods were detrimental to the community, and decided to provide our young ones with a sound environment in which to live, grow and learn.

This group of parents worked diligently to provide education programs for children. In recognition of their accomplishments they won a special award and were able to open on November 9, 1970 the Seabury Day Care Center. The center would be able to serve 85 preschool children ages 2 to 5 and 40 after-school children ages 6 to 12 with a staff of 33.

Under the direction of Mrs. Genevieve Brooks, who served as president until 1990, the center was able to expand many of its educational programs. A special grant awarded by the Bronx Council on the Arts has made possible a cultural program for 40 children ages 9 to 13.

A separate grant also enabled many of the staff members to continue their training and enroll in classes at Columbia University, Lehman College and New York University. Even after the funding for this purpose was no longer available, many of the staff people continued their studies.

Mr. Speaker, I commend all of those who have been involved in making this center a role model for early childhood development and education.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the efforts of the many parents and members of our community who for 25 years have been able to provide our children with the quality education that they deserve at the Seabury Day Care Center.

STEPHEN R. GREGG, A GREAT WAR VETERAN AND OUTSTAND-ING CITIZEN

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 9, 1995

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a great man, Stephen R. Gregg, who distinguished himself in combat in World War II and was awarded a Congressional Medal of Honor. Today, Mr. Gregg will be honored at a Veterans Day Ceremony to be held at City Hall in Bayonne, NJ.

This week's ceremony caps a host of honors bestowed on him as a result of his brave deeds which include the naming of a Hudson County Park in his honor. On October 22, 1995 the Bayonne County Park was renamed the Stephen R. Gregg, Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient Park at a ceremony in his honor.

Mr. Gregg, a native of Bayonne, served in our Armed Forces as a young U.S. Army lieutenant. While engaged in the Italian campaign and on the battlefields of southern France, Mr. Gregg won the Nation's highest military honor.

On August 27, 1944, Sergeant Gregg risked his life to save his fellow countrymen. Near Montelinar, France, Sergeant Gregg and his platoon were advancing on the enemy positions when suddenly someone fired upon the leading scout. Sergeant Gregg rushed to the aid of his riflemen who were engaged in fire. The Germans threw hand grenades at close range wounding several soldiers. While dodging hand grenades, Sergeant Gregg with a machine gun as his only shield boldly led a group of medics up a hill to rescue the soldiers that had been wounded. Despite all the crossfire and hand grenades being thrown at him, Sergeant Gregg risked his life to help his fellow countrymen. Sergeant Gregg stood there firing into the enemy positions while the wounded were removed to safety. In January, 1945, Mr. Gregg received a battlefield commission as a second lieutenant. Shortly afterwards on March 14, 1945 General Alexander Patch presented Mr. Gregg with the Congressional Medal of Honor. Mr. Gregg is one of the few soldiers to have received this great honor while in the field. Among his military decorations are the Silver Star, Purple Heart with cluster, French Croix de Guerre with Silver Star, Bronze Star, Combat Infantry Badge, and many other campaign medals.

I am certain my colleagues will rise with me and pay tribute to this gallant man. As a dedicated citizen, a courageous soldier, and a true American hero, Mr. Gregg embodies the best of American patriotism. Mr. Gregg is a man who has risked his life and contributed his skills to helping maintain and fight for the freedom that America cherishes so much.

HONORING THE VIRGINIA BEACH
VOLUNTEER COUNCIL

HON. OWEN B. PICKETT

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 9, 1995

Mr. PICKETT. Mr. Speaker, every year, millions of Americans give their time, talents, and skills, without pay, to their communities. I rise today to salute the work of the Volunteer Council of the city of Virginia Beach, VA, which is in my congressional district. The volunteer council is the city's umbrella organization of volunteers representing more than 30 city- and State-related agencies.

America's greatest deeds come from the basic decency and compassion of her people. This decency and compassion is the bedrock upon which the volunteer workers of the city of Virginia Beach have developed innovative and effective volunteer partnerships to take on the most difficult challenges that we face as a society.

Since 1985, "more than 40,000 volunteers have contributed over 7 million hours of public service and provided over 77 million dollars, worth of services that would not otherwise have been provided." Volunteerism has been increased in Virginia Beach by more than 200 percent during that period. Through its network of volunteers, the volunteer council has been instrumental in fighting poverty, drug abuse, illiteracy, teen pregnancy, and the alienation of young and old. Volunteers of all ages have worked in the city's libraries, recreation centers, fire stations, rescue squads, patrol cars, and neighborhoods.

By serving others, the volunteers of Virginia Beach have enriched their community. The success of the volunteer council is a reflection of the personal successes of thousands of community volunteers. The volunteer council has been instrumental in promoting the basic values that form the heart of voluntarism. The council and the citizen volunteers of Virginia Beach continue to show that success in life is the sum not of our possessions but of how we help our neighbors.

Mr. Speaker, at this time I insert into the RECORD certain materials documenting the proud accomplishments of the Volunteer Council of the city of Virginia Beach.

VOLUNTEERS IN VIRGINIA BEACH CITY GOVERNMENT

In 1978, the Virginia Beach City Council established a Volunteer Council to help city agencies develop innovative and effective volunteer partnerships. Since that time, volunteers have played a vital role in the delivery of services and community development.

Since 1985, more than 40,000 volunteers have contributed over 7 million hours of public service and provided over $77 million dollars worth of services that would not otherwise have been provided. Volunteerism has been increased in local government by more than 200%.

In 1994, nearly 7,000 volunteers (the equivalent of 621 full-time employees, or 12% of the total workforce) donated more than a million hours to enhance the quality of life, address human needs, increase productivity, and improve city services. In a city of 421,000 people, such strong community spirit and kinship are remarkable.

The Volunteer Council is the city's umbrella organization of volunteers and paid staff representing more than 30 city and state-related agencies. With an annual budget of $28,000, the Council provides support in training, recruiting, public relations, recognition and the use of technology. The Council provides overall coordination and liaison with the city administration and City Council.

Volunteers of all ages can be found in over 200 volunteer opportunities in Virginia Beach city government . . . in libraries, recreation centers, fire stations, ambulances, museums, courts, municipal offices, health clinics, shelters, patrol cars, environmental offices, and neighborhoods. Selected volunteer highlights from 1994 illustrate the depth of scope:

Some 852 EMT's and cardiac technicians, the nation's largest all-volunteer rescue squad, saves lives by responding to 26,000 emergency calls annually.

Social Service volunteers help people in crisis by providing respite care for abused and neglected children; offering day care for children from violent homes; aiding foster children; helping the homeless; teaching families to become self-sufficient; and distributing food and clothing to those in need.

Volunteers, ages 9-82, at the Marine Science Museum help educate 400,000 visitors annually about Virginia's marine environment and aid injured marine animals.

CARE volunteers help empower at-risk neighborhoods to overcome crime and social problems through leadership development.

Reside With Pride volunteers keep people aware of the need to maintain houses and neighborhoods. They help needy and/or elderly citizens with home improvements.

In an innovative twist, non-violent inmates of the Virginia Beach jail volunteer for city services to reduce their time served and help increase work skills.

Auxiliary police officers patrol neighborhoods protecting citizens from crime. Volunteer firefighters work side-by-side with the paid force to protect life and property.

Clean Community volunteers promote litter prevention, recycling, beautification and environmental awareness through projects like Earth Day, Adopt-A-Highway, Clean the Bay Day, and Backyard Stewardship plantings.

Juvenile court volunteers assist in courtrooms, help victims of spouse abuse, and educate first offenders.

City volunteers help prevent drug and alcohol abuse. They stimulate disabled infants, teach crafts to seniors, combat illiteracy, register voters, teach wheelchair sports, and help fellow citizens in a variety of programs.

As cities across the nation face the challenge of "doing more with less" Virginia Beach's volunteer program offers a beacon of hope. Volunteer/Staff partnerships keep vital services available for those who need them most.

At the core of volunteerism in Virginia Beach city government is a commitment to community, a willingness to serve others, and a desire to actively participate in self governance. Most of all, Virginia Beach volunteers are people helping people . . . neighbors helping neighbors . . . to build a better community.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF YITZHAK RABIN

SPEECH OF

HON. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 8, 1995

Mr. DIAZ-BALART. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin. It was with great sadness that I received the news of his tragic and untimely death on Saturday.

Prime Minister Rabin had a vision of a free and democratic Israel living in peace with its neighbors when lesser men could not even imagine the existence of a Jewish State in the Middle East. Yitzhak Rabin fought heroically in the Israeli War of Independence in 1948. He continued to serve and to lead as Chief of Staff of the Israeli Defense Forces during the victorious war of 1967. And as Defense Minister, he continued to lead to contribute to Israel's security not only through preparations for war, but also through preparations for peace.

I had the privilege of seeing firsthand the fruits of his leadership in Israel. Two years ago, as a freshman Congressman, I was able to travel to Israel and meet Yitzhak Rabin and see the country. Not only was I impressed with the man, I was impressed with the Israeli people and their desire for peace and security.

The next time I saw Prime Minister Rabin as last year at the historic ceremony which took place at the White House in which he and Yasser Arafat signed a historic peace accord. Without his leadership, that ceremony would never have occurred. With his leadership, the almost inconceivable peace with former enemies of Israel came closer to fruition.

The peace process and the democratic stability of Israel must serve as a living memorial to Yitzhak Rabin. The heinous act which robbed the world of his presence occurred at the end of a peace rally where he was exhorting others to carry on and support his peace efforts. Mr. Speaker, we must continue to support those efforts.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to conclude my remarks by reading excerpts from Prime Minister Rabin's last public statement, read by him just minutes before he was brutally assassinated.

I was a military man for 27 years. I waged war as long as there was no chance for peace. I believe there is now a chance for peace, a great chance, and we must take advantage of it for those who are standing here, and for those who are not here—and they are many. I have always believed that the majority of the people want peace and are ready to take a chance for peace.

Violence erodes the basis of Israeli democracy. It should be condemned and wisely expunged and isolated. It is not the way of the State of Israel. There is democracy. There can be disputes but the outcome will be settled by democratic elections. Peace is not only in prayers—but it is the desire of the Jewish people. This rally must broadcast to the Israeli public, to the world Jewish public and to many in the western and outside worlds that the people of Israel want peace, support peace.

Mr. Speaker, peace is the most wonderful of goals for which a man can give his life. Yitzhak Rabin gave his life for peace and for his people. He will never be forgotten.
