

Devall also was an elder and trustee of First Presbyterian Church, a commissioner to the U.S. Presbyterian Church General Assembly in 1973, and in 1984 was named trustee emeritus. He was a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism society, American Legion, and Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ruth Heywood of Fort Worth, a nephew, two nieces, and a cousin.

Mr. Speaker, America is enriched by the lives of those citizens like Charles Devall, who have devoted their energy and their talent to the betterment of their communities. As a newspaperman and civic leader who strived for excellence in his community, he will be forever remembered in Kilgore, TX, for his efforts to make it "America's No. 1 Small City." Many would attest that he accomplished that goal.

Mr. Speaker, I join his family and many friends in paying our last respects to Charles Devall and thanking him for a job well done. His legacy will be felt for many generations to come.

TRIBUTE TO TOM EVANS

HON. IKE SKELTON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, local public service the cornerstone of democracy. The country depends on the willingness of good people who will stand for election and assume the responsibility of public office.

The Blue Springs R IV School District in Jackson County, MO, is honoring one of its leaders who is completing two terms of service on its board of education. Tom Evans' leadership potential was recognized early in his tenure and he served as treasurer, vice president, and twice as president of the board in his 6 years on the board.

During the time Tom Evans served on the Blue Springs Board of Education the district was in a dynamic period of growth in its physical facilities and its programs. The district opened a second high school, conducted a patron survey, established an alternative school, initiated a homework hotline, developed a business/patron/school partnership program, initiated a Saturday school detention program, established the CHOICES program and a youth offender unit, initiated an Air Force ROTC program, originated a senior seminar class, established a community education program, was selected as the first Missouri Goals 2000 community, established a school of economics and implemented the TechNet 2000 computer program. In addition the district passed a levy and four bond issues in his tenure.

Clearly, the public had justified faith in the leadership of its school board. It is fitting for the board to pause and reflect on the outstanding record of service and leadership established by Tom Evans.

I am pleased to note that record and offer it into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD that others may be aware of it and seek to emulate this man's accomplishments.

REGULATORY REFORM FOR THE PEOPLE

HON. RON PACKARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, the American people are tired of drowning in a sea of red tape. America's regulatory regime has grown into an out of control tidal wave. The Republican Regulatory Transition Act, H.R. 450, represents the first step in turning back the flood of costly and excessive Federal regulation.

We must attempt to control this regulatory wave before the American people suffocate from bureaucratic do's and don'ts. Government regulations and guidelines restrict personal freedom and economic prosperity. Big government intervention more often represents the problem rather than the solution. Our Republican Contract With America includes regulatory provisions to get Government out of the people's lives while promoting economic opportunity. We will roll back taxes on investments that create jobs, not smother them.

Small businesses represent the heart and soul of our economy. American taxpayers work hard for every dollar they send to Washington. Republicans know this. We continue to work to free America from the economically burdensome bureaucratic red tape.

Mr. Speaker, Government exists to serve the needs of everyone, not the interest of a special few. The regulatory reform proposals within our Contract With America work to restore Government accountability and responsibility. Republicans promise to continue working for what the people want—a smaller, less costly and less intrusive Government.

CONGRATULATIONS LADY BRAVES

HON. GLENN POSHARD

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. POSHARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Mt. Zion eighth grade girls basketball team. In true championship style the Lady Braves recently won their second straight I.E.S.A. class 8AA State championship.

This remarkable accomplishment may only be overshadowed by the dramatic fashion by which they won the trophy. In a nailbiter of a contest the Lady Braves traded baskets and held on to defeat a fine Lake Zurich South team, by the score of 35–34. With this victory the Lady Braves became the only team in Illinois' history to have two consecutive, undefeated I.E.S.A. State championship seasons.

As a former coach I understand the hard work and dedication it takes to develop a winning team. I applaud the coaches and athletes for their dedication and commitment to excellence. At this time, I would like to enter the names of the coaches and team members into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD. The coaches are Richard Marshall, Greg Blakely, and Dick Jones. The team members are Arielle Bradley, Dottie Bradley, Nikki Bricker, Laura Dukeman, Kristin Jackson, Angie Jenkins, Carlin Long, Lindsay Lukowski, Emily McDonald, Michelle Morganthaler, Jackie Pate, Tiffany Powers, Krista Schwartz, Rachel Severe, and Alexis Wright.

I am proud to represent these fine coaches and athletes in Congress. Congratulations Lady Braves, for being one of the best basketball teams in Illinois' history.

TRIBUTE TO JACK CALLAN

HON. RALPH M. HALL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. HALL of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Jack Callan, a legendary newspaperman and civic leader in Kaufman, TX, who died January 17, 1995, following a long illness. Jack Callan's career spanned a lifetime in the newspaper profession, from the days when newspapers were printed on hot type presses to today's offset operation. He was publisher of the Kaufman Herald from 1931 to 1971 and was one of Kaufman's leading citizens.

Born July 16, 1920 in Brady, TX, to Louis G. and Clara McAdams Callan, Jack Callan began his newspaper career as a young reporter for the Winters Enterprise in Winters, TX. His brother, L.E., was publishing the Antlers American in Antlers, OK, at the same time. In 1931 to two brothers purchased the Kaufman Herald. Callan worked as a reporter and then became editor of the paper, while his brother, noted as an excellent printer, took care of most of the newspaper's production work.

As editor, Callan helped earn the Herald a place of prominence among Texas community newspapers. In 1944 the paper was named Texas' "Best All-Round Weekly Newspaper" and through the years also captured State and regional awards for news writing, column writing, typography, and advertising. In 1952 Callan purchased his brother's interest in the newspaper and continued to run its operations for the next two decades with the help of his family and pressman J.W. Melton. In 1962, in tribute to his outstanding contributions to journalism in North and East Texas, Callan was awarded the Sam C. Holloway Memorial Award by the Northeast Texas Press Association. He was a member of the Dallas Press Club, a member of Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity, the Texas Press Association, and was a member and president of the Northeast Texas Press Association.

In 1972 Callan sold his newspaper but began a "second" career in community service. He was a substitute teacher in the Kaufman school system for several years and managed the Kaufman Chamber of Commerce for 6 years. A long-time member and past president of the Lions Club, he often served as an installation officer of out-of-town clubs. In 1980 he was named "Senior Citizen of the Year" and also received the President's Award from the Chamber of Commerce. In 1984 he was named "Outstanding Citizen of the Year" by the Chamber.

Callan is survived by his wife of 53 years, Wynelle Callan, two daughters and sons-in-laws, five grandchildren, one great granddaughter, and numerous nieces and nephews. Services were held in the First Christian Church of Kaufman on January 19.

Callan devoted his life to the betterment of this community through his commitment to excellence as publisher of the Kaufman Herald and through his selfless efforts as a civic leader. He will be remembered and missed by all those who knew him. Mr. Speaker, as we adjourn today, I would like to pay tribute to this outstanding citizen of Kaufman County, TX—Jack Callan.

TRIBUTE TO BILLY ROSSER

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to rise today and pay tribute to an outstanding citizen of Indiana's First Congressional District, Billy Rosser. On Saturday, February 25, 1995, Mr. Rosser, along with his friends and family, will celebrate his retirement from public office. The celebration will take place at Rosser Hall in Hobart, IN.

Billy has dedicated a substantial portion of his life to the betterment of northwest Indiana, particularly Hobart Township.

After a 30-year career with Inland Steel's accounting department, Billy retired to pursue a life of public service. In 1970, Billy was elected Hobart Township Trustee, and throughout his 24-year role in this position, Billy has successfully led Hobart Township into one of the only debt-free townships in the county. With an emphasis on the improvement of education amongst Hobart Township's youth, as chief administrator of Hobart, and as a member of the Lake County Board of Education, Billy was instrumental in the restructuring of the Hobart Township school system from 1971 through 1974. During his tenure as Hobart Township Trustee, Billy procured funds to establish Rosser Hall, which is utilized for various celebrations, and Rosser Park. The moneys generated from these structures flow back into Hobart Township, and are applied directly to the township's assistance fund.

Billy has held past presidencies of the Lake County Township Trustee Association, the East Gary Police Association, and the Hobart Township Lake Ridge Community Services. He served as chairman of the Lake Station-Hobart Township Precinct Organization, and director of the East Gary Democratic Club. Billy holds memberships in the Hobart Elks, the Lions Club, the Shriner's organization, the Fraternal Order of Police Associations of Hobart and Lake Station, as well as membership on the advisory board for the Regional Lake Station Bank of Indiana Board of Directors. This year, Billy was recognized by the Indiana Township Trustees Association for his years of service and success as the Hobart Township Trustee and as the original president of the Lake County Township Trustee Association.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my colleagues to join me in honoring this amazing person for his commitment to the betterment of his community. However, as one great public servant leaves, I am sure that Ms. Barbara Rosser will continue to carry on her father's legacy as the new Hobart Township trustee. I truly hope that the Rosser's celebration this Saturday proves to be a most joyous occasion.

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT, H.R.

HON. JOEL HEFLEY

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, yesterday, I introduced legislation, H.R. 1026, to designate the U.S. Post Office building located at 201 East Pikes Peak Avenue in Colorado Springs, CO, the Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office.

This designation will honor the memory of a man who contributed greatly to the community of Colorado Springs. Working as a carpenter and prospector for over 18 years, Winfield Scott Stratton was one of the many adventurers who came to Colorado looking for their fortune. In his case, the fortune was a rich deposit of gold in Cripple Creek, CO.

Mr. Stratton's lifestyle changed little after his gold strike. He believed it was the duty of anyone who made a fortune to use his wealth in the development of his community. In keeping with that philosophy, Mr. Stratton dedicated the rest of his life to helping others less fortunate and to advancing the development of Colorado Springs and Colorado.

He purchased and gave Colorado Springs the ground for its city hall; he helped finance a new courthouse; he purchased and upgraded the street railway system; he built the first privately funded building at the Colorado School of Mines; and he endowed the Myron Stratton Home, a foster home for children and impoverished elderly which is still serving the Colorado Springs community today. Thousands of Coloradans today are the direct beneficiaries of Mr. Stratton's generosity.

Regarding H.R. 1026, it is noteworthy that Winfield Scott Stratton also purchased the property at 201 East Pikes Peak Avenue and sold it to the Federal Government for half its value on the condition that the Federal Government build the post office which stands there today.

In view of Mr. Stratton's contribution to the existing post office and to Colorado as a whole, it is an entirely fitting and appropriate gesture to name this U.S. Post Office the Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office. He was a man who shared his riches with an entire State, and he left a legacy of love and care which continues today.

TRIBUTE TO CAPT. EMMANUEL L. "MANNY" JENKINS

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Capt. Emmanuel L. "Manny" Jenkins, U.S. Maritime Service, on the occasion of his retirement from service at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy.

Manny Jenkins served on active duty in the U.S. Navy from 1957 to 1960 at the Third Naval District Headquarters. He joined the staff of the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy [USMMA] in 1970, after spending 10 years with Dryfuse & Co., a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Manny Jenkins' career included distinguished service as the USMMA director of admissions. Under his stewardship, USMMA's ranking in Barrons' Profiles of American Colleges elevated to the top category of most competitive in 1979, a position occupied by only 32 other select institutions.

In May 1992, Captain Jenkins was appointed as the USMMA Congressional Liaison Officer by the Superintendent of the Academy.

Captain Jenkins graduated from Howard University in 1956. He holds a masters in education degree from C.W. Post College, and a masters in science degree from Long Island University. He is a Commander (retired) in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

Captain Jenkins has received numerous awards from the Maritime Administration, including the Special Achievement Award, the Medal for Superior Service, and the Equal Opportunity Award. He also received the Maritime Administration's Bronze Medal, the top honor award granted in recognition of extremely competent performance of official departmental duties over a long period of time.

Mr. Speaker, Manny Jenkins' service to his country has touched the lives of countless young men and women entering the United States Merchant Marine Academy in pursuit of careers in the maritime service. His integrity and his commitment to excellence are the trademarks of his career.

I ask my colleague to join me in thanking him for his distinguished and selfless service to the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, and to wish him well as he enters this new and exciting time in his life.

AMENDING GOALS 2000

HON. WILLIAM F. GOODLING

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 24, 1995

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, today I am introducing legislation to amend Goals 2000 and the Improving America's Schools Act of 1994 [IASA] to eliminate the National Education Standards and Improvement Council [NESIC] and to remove references to opportunity to learn standards or strategies, provisions that interfere with traditional state and local control of education. Twenty-six Members are joining as original cosponsors of this legislation.

Public education in this country is the constitutional and historic responsibility of the States and of local school districts. Federal involvement in education is conditioned on respect for that relationship and, consequently, is limited. Occasionally, Congress enacts legislation that fails to respect these limitations on Federal action. When that happens, it is our responsibility to revisit those laws and to remove the provisions that intrude on state and local control.

The Goals 2000 legislation and the Improving America's Schools Act of 1994 [IASA], both passed in the 103d Congress, contain provisions that violate the traditional limits on Federal involvement in education. The National Education Standards and Improvement Council [NESIC], created by Goals 2000, is a body to be appointed by the President that has the mission of reviewing and certifying national education standards and State standards that are voluntarily submitted to it. The distance between standards and curriculum is not very great. There is a prohibition on the
